SUBSTITUTES!

The public are cautioned against a custom which is growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is this: When asked for a bottle of Pain-Killer, they suddenly discover that they are "sold out," "but have another article just as good, if not better," which they will supply at the same price. The object of this deception is transparent. These substitutes are made up to sell on the great reputation of the Pain-Killer; and being compounded of the vilest and cheapest drugs, are bought by the dealer at about half what he pays for the genuine Pain-Killer, which enables him therefore to realize a few cents more profit per bottle upon the imitation article than he can on the genuine.

FOR CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMP AND ALL SUMMER OR BOWEL COMPLAINTS

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER

IS UNEQUALLED. IT CURES ALMOST INSTANTLY. The PAIN-KILLER is put up in 2 oz. and 5 oz. bottles, retailing at 25 and 50 cents respectively,—large bottles are therefore cheapest. SOLD BY ALL MEDICINE DEALERS.

OUR S. S. PAPERS.

The SABBATH SCHOOL PRESBYTERIAN (monthly) for 1880 will be better adapted for senior scholars. In its columns will be found more frequent reference to the mission work of our own Church; and efforts will be made to awaken and keep alive the interest of our young readers in the great work of spreading the saving truths of the Gospel into all lands.

GOLDEN HOURS will be continued as a monthly. It is already quite a favourite; and no efforts will be spared to increase its popularity and usefulness.

I have been asked to get out a paper at a lower price, which would be better adapted for INFANT CLASSES. EARLY DAYS will be published fortnightly for 1880 in response to this request. It will be beautifully illustrated; and cannot fail to be in great demand amongst the young folks.

Specimen copies of each sent free on application. The Rev. WM. INGLIS has kindly consented to take charge of these papers, which will be a guarantee that they may be safely placed in the hands of the "Children of the Church."

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY cures summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, sour stomach, colic, nausea, vomiting, canker, piles, leucorrhoea, and all manner of fluxes.

EVERY lady should keep a bottle of ammonia, alcohol and water (mixed in equal parts) for the purpose of cleansing old cashmeres, camel's hair, or any woollen dresses. Shake out all the dust, and brush well with a whisk-broom, or, better yet, with a brush made of a strip of old black broadcloth, four or five inches wide, rolled up and sewed to keep in place. A sponge dipped in the mixture will remove any spots, and freshen up the dress.

WHERE white china is used on the tables, the artistic effect may be added by having a white linen table-cloth, with a gay applique border, chain-stitched on with working cotton of the same colour. The border may be of turkey red; or pink or blue silesia. If this would take too much time, there are handsome striped cretonnes which can be cut in strips, and stitched on with the sewing-machine. Put the border an inch or two above the edge, which may be trimmed on all four sides with imitation Languedoc or cheap antique lace. Place under each plate a small fringed napkin of solid colour to correspond.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY cures all forms of bowel complaints in infants or adults. The most safe, pleasant, and perfect remedy known. Purely vegetable and free from opiates or poisonous drugs.

DELMONICO STEW.—Cut cold, cooked, fresh meat of any kind into small, thin slices; put them into a stew-pan with a little hot water, season with mace, pepper, and salt to taste; use partly cayenne pepper. Should there be any cold gravy left use this, and butter enough to make the stew rich. Put all in the stew-pan, cover it, and let the meat simmer ten or fifteen minutes. Cut up a lemon, and remove the seed; add this to the stew. Grate the yolks of two hard boiled eggs, mix with it two teaspoonfuls of good English mustard; this should be put in a small bowl. Pour the gravy to this slowly, making it to a smooth paste. Put this over the meat. Remove it from the fire, and serve immediately.

COLD SLAW.—Cut a head of hard, white cabbage into very fine shavings, it is seldom shaved fine enough. For a quart of the cabbage take the yolks of three eggs, beat them well; stir into a tumbler and a half of vinegar, two spoonfuls of loaf sugar, a table-spoonful of olive oil, one of thick, sweet cream, or a piece of butter as large as a walnut, a heaped teaspoonful of mustard, salt and pepper to taste; mix with the egg, and put this sauce into a stew-pan; when hot add the cabbage, stew until thoroughly hot, which will not require more than four or five minutes. Toss it up from the bottom with a silver or wooden fork; take it up, and set where it will become perfectly cold; an ice is best. The quantity of vinegar would depend on its strength.

BROWN SAUCE WITH MUSHROOMS.—Put two table-spoonfuls of butter into a saucepan; let it melt; cut up three large onions and lay into it; also, cut in small pieces one pound of beef, one pound of veal, and a slice of bacon, two cloves, a few whole black peppercorns, two teaspoonfuls of salt, a bay leaf, and a gill of water; set it on a quick fire, stirring it well, and let it boil hard about ten minutes, then remove to a cooler part of the fire and let boil slowly until it is of a nice brown colour; add to this between two and three quarts of water, and set where it will only simmer, leaving the lid of the saucepan part way off; skim free from fat, and boil slowly two hours, then pass through a sieve. Put two ounces of butter in a pan, melt it over a slow fire, and add three table-spoonfuls of flour; stir it until it is getting a deep yellow colour, then remove from the fire; let it get a little cool, and add at once as much of the above stock as is needed, set it on the fire to boil; when it comes to a boil, set aside and let simmer; skim free from all grease. It should be a rich brown. Put in this about twelve mushrooms washed and chopped fine; a little cayenne and a little sugar may be added, and will be found an improvement.
