Our Father Abuna.

BY JOHN IMAIE, TORONTO, CANADA.

The light o' mornin' should see us a-steer
 The work o' the day to begin,
 Hit afore we commence our hearts it wad
 cheer
 To speak to our Father abuna;
 Each day has its cares, an' its trials, an' toil,
 Its pleasures, its praise, an' its blame;
 As dew to the grass, or as rain to the soil—
 God's blessin' afore we lea' hame!

Devotion uplifts us on wings o' the dove,
 An' sets a' our heart in a flame,
 To feel that our Faith in watchin' above
 An' kens us each ane by our name!
 It makes us feel strong for the battle o' life,
 An' gies us baith courage an' vim,
 To fight wi' temptation, an' win in the strife,
 Prayer brings us aye nearer to Him!

An' when we come hame, ere we gang to our bed,
 Our prayers to forget is a shame,
 For in His Guid Book how often 'tis said,
 "I loe them that ca' on My name!"
 "The secret o' God is wi' them that Him fear."
 He'll shield them frae a' Satan's blame;
 An' when we lie doon for to dee He'll be noar
 To bring His ain bairnies a' hame!
