

Rifle Match at Hampton.

A very exciting rifle match took place at Hampton, Wednesday, between members of Nos. 1 and 4 Troops of Cavalry, eight men from each troop. The distance fired was 200 and 300 yards, five rounds at each range. The match was brilliantly contested, and resulted in a victory of thirteen points for No. 1 Troop, Commanded by Captain Ouy. The scores made were not very high, on account of the high wind and very bright sunshine. After the match was completed, the competitors adjourned to Mr. Noah Barnes', where a dinner was served up in excellent style.

The following toasts were then given, and duly honored: "The Queen, God Bless Her." The Governor General; Col. Main-sell; D.A.G.; Col. Saunders, 8th Regt. Cav.; No. 4 Troop of Cavalry, responded to by Capt. Langstroth; No. 1 Troop, responded to by Cornet Wood. "Capt. Langstroth's health" was proposed by Mr. Fred M. Sproul, who, in a short speech, set forth that gentleman's good qualities, and the toast was drunk amid great cheering and with great enthusiasm. After considerable speech making the party dispersed, singing "God Save the Queen." Arrangements have been made for another match between the same parties on the 24th of May.—St. John Telegraph.

ONTARIO RIFLE ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Rifle Association on the 6th inst., it was decided to postpone the annual Matches until August 1st.
