General Summary.

British Columbia is to have a mining bureau, under a Deputy Minister of mines.

The funded debt of Halifax N. S., is $2,800,000, the annual expenditure $352-173.

The Montreal Street Railway Co. has decided not to seek entrance into the Mountain Park.

A writer in the "Century" says that "blackmailing" has prevailed in New York since it became a city, before Independence.

Another gold mine boom has commenced in Australia, 2000 leases have been granted and a number of companies floated to exploit the new mines.

A Winnipeg despatch says:—"Messrs.
Gordon & Ironsides, extensive cattle exporters, have just made an experiment of shipping a large consignment of live cattle in winter to Great Britain.

The "Baltimore Journal of Commerce" issue recently its 45th Annual Trade Review. The number is highly creditable in "get up," and gives a most interesting, and valuable sketch of the various commercial interests of that port. Our contemporaries are congratulated on this very excellent number.

Philadelphia by its high license law reduced the saloons from 5000 to 1500, but the commitments were more in 1894 than before the license were raised. This confirms what we have said before, that there is no reason for supposing men will drink less in large saloons than in small ones, the chances are all the other way, as company is attractive, and there is far more treating going on in a crowd than in a small gathering.

Mr. Laurier would have as much success in an attempt to dam up the waters of the St. Lawrence with bulrushes as in his present one to persuade the Canadian electors that England is at present prospering under free trade. According to one authority, three million people are reduced to the verge of starvation in the Mother Country, and according to another, more than three and a half million of her arable acres have been turned down to grass during the last thirty years.

A petition said to have been signed by four million people of all countries addressed to the governments of the world against allowing any man to take what beverage he likes, is being exhibited.
This recalls another petition which was found to have been signed wholesale by writers who added names at so much per hundred. The much vaunted prohibition one may have been got up in the same way.
Such documents have no significance, as nobody believes in them. A petition recently got up on these lines at Rochester on being examined turned out to have been chiefly signed by minors, and strangers to the city probably bogus signatures.

The shoe trade is reported flourishing and factories are running overtime at Quebec.

The English Government proposes to build roads in Ireland to relieve the distress prevailing, and to pay men $1.50 per week, just the very barest sum to keep the alive.
But then they can rejoice over Free Trade.

The Hamilton bridge works have been sold by auction. Mr. J. H. Tilden secured the property and plant at $42,000. It is understood he represents a syndicate headed by Wm. Hendrie and himself, and the works will be opened again. The creditors will probably receive a fair dividend, but there will be nothing for the shareholders. The works cost $135,000 and were valued at $80,000 some year ago.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating Messrs F. G. Foisy, of Montreal, piano manufacturer; Theodore Nadeau, of Providence, Rhode Island; C. Lesmarieau, accountant, of Montreal; J. J. Beauchamp, advocate, of Montreal; C. P. Bennett, Rhode Island, by the name of "The Thomas F. G. Foisy Piano Manufacturing Company," with a total capital stock of $300,000, dividend into three thousand shares.

Owing to complaints having been made that mixed butter was being shipped from Australia and sold in London market as "prime Victorian butter," which would likely damage the export trade in that article, the Minister of Agriculture has directed the Government dairy expert to keep a careful watch over intended shipments, and to brand any such butter as "mixed." It has also been alleged that in some cases brands intended as an imitation to a large extent of the brands of factories noted for the superiority of their butter were being placed on boxes shipped to London, where only experienced buyers would recognize the slight difference. This matter, too, has been asked to be looked into by the "expert." The Minister expects to receive assistance in preventing its recurrence from the Registrar General's office, by refusing in future register any colorable imitation of an existing trade mark or brand.
