

INDEX TO VOL. IV.

	Page		Page
To the Old Year—by E. L. C.	93	The Voice Within—by S. Lover,	424
The Night Storm—by J. S.,	94	The Reaper's Song—by Mrs. Moodie,	424
The Orphan ; or, the Affianced—by E. M. M. 97, 161, 193, 265, 303, 357	The Echo,	435
The Sabbath—by E. L. C.,	112	The Pause—by Mrs. Moodie,	444
The Detected Brigand—by —, 125, 178 234, 241.	The Convert of Athens—by T. D. F.	444
The Harp and the Poet,	135	To Miss E. M. G.	464
The Mountain Stream—by Mrs. J. R. Spooner, 136	The Spirits' Gathering—by G. W. Roblins,	470
The Miser's Grand daughter—by E. L. C. 145 224, 251. 145	To the Sun,	479
To Miss —, by Russell,	189	The Bird of Passage,	481
To Scotland—by Russell,	191	Trip to the Falls of Shewinagam,	523
To E. L. C.,	209	To Hope—by Russell,	560
The Moslem's Call to Battle—by James Holmes, 233	The Rivals,	560
The Earthquake—by Mrs. Moodie,	237	The West and the East—by Non,	571
The Approach of Insanity—by James Holmes, 283	The Summer's Gone—by Russell,	574
The Sugar Bird—by Mrs. Moodie,	290	The Backwoodsman—by Mrs. Moodie,	577
The Destruction of Babylon—by Mrs. Moodie, 327	To the Readers of the Garland,	579
The Miser and his Son—by Mrs. Moodie, 319 348, 389, 447, 485, 533. 319	Varieties,	54, 214
The Living and the Dead—by James Holmes, 375	Woman—by H.	135
The Orkney Boatman's Song—by J. W. D. Moodie, 375	What is Death?—by the Rev. E. Croly,	335
		Why Tarries my Johnnie?—by D. C.	381
		Your Heart is a Music-box, dearest,	505
		MUSIC.—The First Sleigh Bells,	42
		Mayerbeer,	138
		Thema,	192
		Rondeau,	238
		Valse Romané,	331
		Rhydian March ; or, the Tune of Morvah, 480
		Ariette Sicillienne,	336