THE RELIEF PARTY.

Scene :—Works on the Montreal, Ottawa, and Western Railway. Personages : SIR HUGH ALLAN ; HON. J. G. ROBERTSON, Treasurer Province of Quebec.
HON. J. G. :—Why, ALLAN ! you seem quite done up ; is the Job too heavy for you ?
SIR HUGH :—Yes, it is ; there's too much worry about it ; I must be relieved. Besides, the building of this road concerns you more than it does me, so tuck up your sleeves, and finish it like a man.
