From this we turn to a critical notice of that well-known work, " Lord Campbell's lives of the Chief Justices" which we need not dwell on. " Lord Holland's foreign reminiscences" show the gossiping author in no very enviable light, whilst under the paper entitled "Kings and Popes" we have a fresh Papal aggression on Romish (not the Roman) States. There are also one or two other entertaining papers in this publication.

THE SNOW DROF; a Juvenile Magazine: March. 1851. Lay & Co., Montreal.

The ninth number of this little Magazine for little people has reached us. It contains both useful and instructive as well as entertaining matter. though not of a distinctive Church character. From it we have only room to extract

THE OLD CHURCH.

That Church so gray and old it stands, Crowning the rich and fruitful lands: Around it all is fresh and fair ; Its mossy spires, why rise they there?

Deep in long ages past, 'tis said, The massive corner-stone was laid; With pious prayer and holy rood, Blessing the consecrated wood.

Time o'er its ballowed walls has crept. Race after race beneath it slept; Still its sweet bells at evening chime, And calls to prayer in morning's prime.

Before its altars, meekly bowed. Grief still finds balm for many a wound; And joy its offering loves to bring. And mercy takes from guilt its sting.

Faith, Hope, and Love, the sister band. Still lift from thence their earnest hand: What name we ask not doth it bear-A Christian Church—the Cross is there.

THE CANTICLES ARRANGED FOR CHANTING, WITH A PREPACE: BY JOHN, BISHOP OF FREDERICK-TON. New Brunswick: J. Simpson, 1851.

We have received a copy of this very useful publication, in the preface to which, the Bishop observes: "Let the chant be simple and easy; the reciting note not too high; the melody grave, but easily caught, and often sung; the words neither drawled nor gabbled, but uttered freely, distinctly, and cheerfully, with a measured, marchlike cadence, such as befits the words to be sung, and let the people all join with one accord, and no part of public worship is more edifying." How these essentials may be attained, are here pointed out, and in such a manner that the humblest country congregation may, in a little time and with a little trouble on their part, ' sing in chorus together.'

but for the information of others in like affliction.

A slight cold upon the lungs, neglected at first, became so severe that spitting of blood, a violent cough and profuse night sweats followed and fastened upon me. I became emaciated could not sleep, was distressed by my cough, and a pain through my chest and in short had all the alarming symptoms of quick consumption. No medicine seemed at all to reach my case, until I providentially tried grow CHERRY PECTORAL, which soon relieved and now has cured me.

Yours with respect, E. A. STEWART. Albany, N.Y., April 17, 1848,

Dr. Ayer, Lowell—Dear Sir,—I have for years been afflicted with Asthma in the worst form; so that I have been obliged to sleep in my chair for a larger part of the time, being unable to breathe on my bed. I had tried a great many medicines, to no purpose, until my physician prescribed, as an experiment, your CHERRY PECTORAL.

At first it appeared to make me worse, but in less than a week I began to experience the most gratifying relief from its use; and now, in four weeks, the disease is entirely removed. I can sleep on my bed with comfort, and enjoy a state of health which I had never expected to onlog.
