Then raising his voice solemnly, heldaid ? Za TA was drowned three years ago off, the coast of South America; what do you see?"

"I see," replied the student, "a white light arising near the window, but it has no form; it is like an unertain cloud."

We—the spectators—remained profoundly silent.
"Are you afraid?" asked the merchant in 'a loud certain cloud."

voice "I am not," replied the student firmly After a few moment's silence the pedlar stamped three times on the ground, and sang:
And the phantom white, whose clay cold face

Was once so fair, Dried with his shroud his chilling vest

And his sea-tossed hair. "You, who would see revealed the mysteries of the tomb, what do you see now?"

The student answered in a calm voice, but like that of a man describing things as they passed

"I see the cloud taking the form of a phantom; its head is covering with a long veil—it stands

" Are you afraid?"

"I am not." We looked at each other in horror-struck silence while the merchant raising his arms above his head, chanted in a sepulchral voice:

And the phantom said, as he rose from the wave,

He shall know me in sooth! will go to my friend gay, smiling, and fond, As in our first youth!

"What do you see ?" said he. "I see the phantom advance, he lifts his veil-'tis Francis Villiers!—his signature!"

"Are you afraid?"

A fearful moment of silence ensued; then the student replied, but in an altered voice :

"I am not!" With strange and antic gestures the merchant then

And the phantom said to the mocking seer, I come from the South:

Put thy hand on my hand, thy heart to my heart, Thy mouth to my mouth. "What do you see?"

"He comes—he approaches me—he pursues me—he is stretching out his arms—he will have me! Help! help!—save me!"

"Are you afraid now?" the merchant asked in a mocking tone.

A piercing cry, and then a stifled groan were the folly reply to this terrible question.
"Help that rash youth," said the merchant bitterly. "I have, I think, won the wager; but it is A piercing cry, and then a stifled groan were the folly reply to this terrible question.

If "Help that rash youth," said the merchant bitally. "I have, I think, won the wager; but it is fighticient for me to have given him a lesson. Let think keep his money and be wiser for the future." He walked rapidly away. We opened the door of the summer house, and found the student in convulsons. A paper, signed "Francis Villiers," was on the table. As soon as the student's senses were re-gord he asked vehemently where was the vile sorher who had thus subjected him to such a horrible deal—he would kill him. He sought him through-nt in vain; then, with the speed of a madman, he ashed off across the fields in pursuit of him—and e never saw either of them again. That, children, the ghost story.

"And how is it, uncle, that after that you don't lieve in ghosts?" said I, the first time I heard it. "Because, my boy," replied my uncle, "neither the student nor the merchant ever returned; and the forty-five guineas, belonging to me and the other rarellers, continued equally invisible. These two windlers carried them off after having acted a rce, which we, like ninnies believed to be real.

"You are from the country, are you not, sir?" sked a dandy bookseller of a homely-dressed waker, who had given him some trouble.
"Yea."

"Well, here's an essay on the Rearing of calves." "That," replied the Quaker as he turned to leave he store, "thee had better present to thy mother."

WORMS! WORMS!

A great many learned treatises have been writen, explaining the origin of, and classifying the forms generated in the human system. Scarcely by topic of medical science has elicited more acute bservation and profound research; and yet physiians are very much divided in opinion on the subect. It must be admitted, however, that, after all, a choice of expelling these worms, and purifying the body from their presence, is of more value than the visest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. MLane's Verifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. is the much sought after specific, and has already superseded all pther worm medicines, its efficacy being universally pither worm medicines, its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

AFPurchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'-LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURGE, PA. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of

AYER'S RADOT CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID OURE OF A P Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., 20th Dec., 1855.
DR. J. C. ATER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHREAT PROTORIL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints.

EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Urica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Perforal myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicins for its purpose ever put out. With a believe it should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

BREITER ATEB: I will cheerfully certify your Protect is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and command your modicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTERET, I.A., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pzerorat, by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my threat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheaport as well as the best we can buy, and we settem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1860.
Sin: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is porforming marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved soveral from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROR CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherrer Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords ro lief and comfort. lief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1866.

DOCTOR ATER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet asstrong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard.

ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried Aven's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Philaddphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innunerable proofs are shown that these Prils have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the estoom of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distance, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impact healthy tone with atrength to the whole system. Not only do they care the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to foold the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clargymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratismy American Almanac, containing directions for their use, and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausca, Indiges-

cates of their cures of the following complaints:—
Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausca, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Portial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off, by unpripieled dealers with some others pills.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for Aven's Pills, and take nothing elec. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or carative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
