Mercantile Summary.

THE Atlas Assurance Company's portfolio and calendar for 1895 is a convenient present to its patrons.

MR. GEO. McMURRICH sends to his friends an occasional copy of the vest pocket memorandum book published by the company for which he is general agent, the Alliance Assurance Company.

ST. HYACINTHE is to have a new hotel. A company is applying for incorporation with a capital of $50,000 having the purpose of erecting one, the title of this company to be La Compagnie du Grand Hotel de St. Hyacinthe.

THE wholesale dry goods firm of Thibaudeau Brothers & Co., of Montreal and Quebec, has been dissolved by the death of Mr. Geo. Larue on the 5th inst. The business is continued under the same style by the remaining partners, Messrs. A. A. Thibaudeau, R. Audette, and Roger Larue.

THE town of Gananoque, Ont., furnishes two failures to the weekly list. H. E. Walton, at one time manager of the Gananoque Carriage Company, and of late engaged in the manufacture of a patent damper, has made an assignment.—So also have done Fitzpatrick & Phillips, tailors, in which concern T. E. Phillips has been the only partner since the spring of 1893, Mr. Fitzpatrick having died about that time.

Mercantile Summary.

JOHN FENNELLS & SON, of Berlin, favor us with one of their calendars for 1895, the conspicuous object in which is the old flag.

A DRY goods retailer at Ottawa, L. Taillefer, is seeking a settlement at 70 cents on the dollar. He began business in 1891 on small capital. Last month he was burned out, with only partial insurance. Liabilities are $10,516.

MESSRS. JOB BROS. & Co., general merchants, St. John's, one of the more important firms involved in the recent troubles in Newfoundland, are arranging a compromise at 33½ cents on the dollar, one-third to be paid in cash, balance within a year, security being furnished by the Bank of Liverpool.

We observe that the North British Economist, the only financial journal published in Scotland, comes out in a colored cover at the New Year. As an organ of Scottish banking and financial affairs, it is valuable, its editorials being usually characterized by knowledge and good sense. Insurance is a leading department of the journal, and it frequently records new railway undertakings, and discusses schemes of railway finance. Furthermore it contains a digest of the chief cases affected by commercial and financial law. The annual subscription (post free) is seven shillings, and there are offices at 377 High street, Edinburgh, and 11 Ludgate Hill, London, E.C.

Mercantile Summary.

WE thank the Dominion Dye Woods Company for a very neat calendar for 1895. Likewise the Intercolonial Railway Company for one of their's, with a most suggestive view of Baddeck and thereabout, the lovely Cape Breton landscape that Charles Dudley Warner has done so much to make known.

A PRESENT appropriate to the New Year comes to us from the B. F. Goodrich Company, of Akron, Ohio. This is a life-size lithographed fac-simile of Corcos' portrait of Josephine. It now ornaments our walls, and we invariably call the attention of visitors to the apt quotation underneath the picture.

H. PELLETIER, doing business in dry goods in his wife's name at Montreal, under the style of H. Pelletier & Co., has fyled consent to assign. The liabilities are estimated at $10,000 to $12,000.—Cyprien Dumouchel, a saloon keeper in the same city, has assigned on demand, and shows liabilities of $3,418.

THE general store firm of McEwan & Co., Sudbury, Ont., whose embarrassment was noted in these columns a few weeks ago, have finally arranged a compromise at 65 cents on the dollar, in quarterly payments spread over fifteen months, and partly secured. The liabilities are $14,692, and assets, stock, $15,300; book debts, $4,397; cash, $550.
