

Default judgement

(6) Where, in any proceedings in a court, service of an originating document has been made on a foreign state in accordance with subsection (1), (3) or (4) and the state has failed to take, within the time limited therefor by rules of the court or otherwise by law, the initial step required of a defendant or respondent in such proceedings in that court, no further step toward judgement may be taken in the proceedings except after the expiration of at least sixty days following the date of service of the originating document.

Idem

(7) Where judgement is signed against a foreign state in any proceedings in which the state has failed to take the initial step referred to in subsection (6), a certified copy of the judgement shall be served on the foreign state

(a) where service of the document that originated the proceedings was made on an agency of the foreign state, in such manner as is ordered by the court; or

(b) in any other case, in the manner specified in paragraph (1)(c) as though the judgement were an originating document.

Idem

(8) Where, by reason of subsection (7), a certified copy of a judgement is required to be served in the manner specified in paragraph (1)(c), subsections (2) and (5) apply with such modifications as the circumstances require.

(9) A foreign state may, within sixty days after service on it of a certified copy of a judgement pursuant to subsection (7), apply to have the judgement set aside.

No injunction, specific performance, etc., without consent

10. (1) Subject to subsection (3), no relief by way of an injunction, specific performance or the recovery of land or other property may be granted against a foreign state unless the state consents in writing to such relief and, where the state so consents, the relief granted shall not be greater than that consented to by the state.

Submission not consent

(2) Submission by a foreign state to the jurisdiction of a court is not consent for the purposes of subsection (1).

Agency of a foreign state

(3) This section does not apply to an agency of a foreign state.
