

Article 28 - Costs relating to the Execution of the Request

1. The Requesting State shall, at the request of the Requested State, reimburse only the following costs and disbursements incurred in executing a request:

- (a) translation and interpretation costs;
- (b) compensation, travel costs and expenses for witnesses and their representatives, if any;
- (c) costs relating to the transfer of detained persons;
- (d) fees, travel costs and expenses for experts.

2. If it becomes apparent that the execution of the request requires expenses of an extraordinary nature, the Requested State shall inform the Requesting State thereof to determine the terms and conditions under which the requested assistance can be provided.

CHAPTER V - FINAL PROVISIONS*Article 29 - Other Agreements or Arrangements

The provisions of this Treaty shall not affect more extensive mutual assistance which has been or may be agreed upon between the Contracting States in other agreements or arrangements or which may result from a well-established practice of their competent authorities.

Article 30 - Consultations

In the cases of co-operation in penal matters to which this Treaty does not apply, the Central Authorities shall consult in order to arrive at a common solution.
