

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work done during the year. It is followed by a detailed account of the various projects and activities carried out, and concludes with a summary of the results achieved and the plans for the future.

The work done during the year has been very satisfactory and has resulted in a number of important achievements. These include the completion of the first phase of the research project, the publication of several papers, and the successful completion of the field work.

The progress made during the year has been due to the co-operation and assistance of the various departments and individuals concerned. It is a pleasure to acknowledge their contribution to the work done.

The results of the work done during the year are very encouraging and show that the objectives set at the beginning of the year have been largely achieved. It is hoped that the work done during the year will provide a basis for further research and development in the future.

The plans for the future are to continue the work done during the year and to carry out the second phase of the research project. It is also planned to publish a book on the results of the work done during the year.
