

was $50,510.50. Of the amount $23,571.46 was contributed by the Intercolonial railway, $1,219.79 was contributed by the Prince Edward Island railway, $23,871.46 was contributed by the employees of the Intercolonial railway, $1,218.79 was contributed by the employees of the Prince Edward Island railway, and $330 was for interest and refunds.

(c) The amount paid out of the said fund during the above period was $42,996.69.

5. No.
6. No.

PURCHASES OF LIVE STOCK.

Mr. ROBB:

1. How many, and what breed, of sheep have been purchased by the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec, for farm or breeding purposes during the year 1913?
2. What is the name and address of each seller?
3. What is the name and address of each agent or representative through whom purchase was made?
4. What was the highest and lowest price paid?
5. Was a commission paid for purchase or examination? If so, to whom and how much?

Mr. BURRELL:

1. There were 13 sheep comprised of the following breeds purchased in the province of Quebec by the Department of Agriculture during the year 1913: Cheviot, Leicester, Oxford-Down, Shropshire, South-Down.
2. The names and addresses of the sellers are as follows: Guy Carr, Compton Station, Que.; J. H. M. Parker, Lennoxville, Que.; H. E. Baldwin, Coaticook, Que.; Albert C. Ralfe, Lime Ridge, Que.; H. C. Bailey, Birchtou, Que.
3. The name and address of the representative through whom purchase was made is J. A. McClarey, Hillhurst, Que.
4. The highest price paid was $25. The lowest price paid was $10.
5. Purchase was made by a representative of the Live Stock Branch, and no commission was paid.

Mr. ROBB:

1. How many, and what breed, of cattle have been purchased by the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec, for farm or breeding purposes during the year 1913?
2. What is the name and address of each seller?
3. What is the name and address of each agent or representative through whom purchase was made?
4. What was highest and lowest price paid?
5. Was a commission paid for purchase or examination? If so, to whom, and how much?

[Mr. Cochrane.]

Mr. BURRELL:

1. No cattle was purchased by the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec for farm or breeding purposes during the year 1913.
- 2, 3 and 4. Answered by No. 1.
5. Answered by No. 1.

Mr. ROBB:

1. How many, and what breed, of horses, have been purchased by the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec, for farm or breeding purposes during the year 1913?
2. What is the name and address of each seller?
3. What is the name and address of each agent or representative through whom purchase was made?
4. What was the highest and lowest price paid?
5. Was a commission paid for purchase or examination? If so, to whom and how much?

Mr. BURRELL:

1. Five French-Canadian horses were purchased by the Experimental Farms Branch of the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec during the year 1913. Two horses, a Percheron and a Clydesdale, have been purchased by the Department of Agriculture in the province of Quebec by the Live Stock Branch thereof during the year 1913.
2. The names and addresses of the sellers of the horses purchased by the Experimental Farms Branch are as follows: Eugene Bernier, Ste. Anne de la Pocatière, Que.; L. P. Sylvestre, St. Theodore d'Acton, Bagot county, Que.; Jos. Roche, St. Elizabeth, Joliette county, Que.; Pierre Lavallée, St. Norbert, Berthier county, Que. The name and addresses of the sellers of the horses purchased by the Live Stock Branch are as follows: Sam. Campbell, Cookshire, Que.; N. S. Inghram, Hillhurst, Que.
3. The names and addresses of each agent or representative through whom purchase was made in the case of the Experimental Farms Branch are as follows: 1 mare bought through L. P. Sylvestre, St. Theodore d'Acton, Bagot county, Que. The remainder were purchased through a representative of the Experimental Farms Branch. In the case of those purchased by the Live Stock Branch, the name of J. A. McClarey, of Hillhurst, Que., has been given as the agent through whom the horses were purchased.
4. In the case of the Experimental Farms Branch, the highest price paid was $400, and the lowest $240. In the case of the