STATUES, R. B. BENNETT AND
ARTHUR MEIGHENQuestion No. 533—Mr. Macquarrie:

1. Is it intended to erect statues of former Prime Ministers R. B. Bennett and Arthur Meighen and, if so, when?

2. Will the Maquettes of Elford, Cox and Marcel Braitstein, judged artistically worthy by an advisory committee in 1967 be the models for the statues?

3. Who was the sculptor for the statue of former Prime Minister Mackenzie King and what was the total cost of this statue?

Hon. Gérard Pelletier (Secretary of State):

1. A statue of the late Arthur Meighen is being sculpted by Mr. Marcel Braitstein, [Mr. Kierans.]

St-Hilaire, P.Q.; the date of installation has yet to be established. There are no immediate plans for the statue of the former Prime Minister, R. B. Bennett.

2. See Part 1.

3. The Mackenzie King statue, which was executed by Mr. Raoul Hunter, Quebec City, P.Q., entailed a total cost of $49,107.49.
