ADJOURNMENT FOR CHRISTMAS RECESS UNTIL JANUARY 12

On the order: Motions:

December 17, 1969—The President of the Privy Council: That when the House adjourns at the conclusion of the sitting on Friday, December 19, 1969, it shall stand adjourned until Monday, January 12, 1970, at 2.00 o'clock p.m., provided always that if it appears to the satisfaction of Mr. Speaker, after consultation with Her Majesty's Government, that the public interest requires that the House should meet at an earlier time during the adjournment, Mr. Speaker may give notice that he is so satisfied, and thereupon the House shall meet at the time stated in such notice, and shall transact its business as if it had been duly adjourned to that time; and

21545—66½

That, in the event of Mr. Speaker being unable to act owing to illness or other cause, the Deputy Speaker or the Deputy Chairman of Committees shall act in his stead for the purpose of this order.

Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale): Stand.

Mr. Stanfield: Mr. Speaker, are we not to have some statement from the Government House Leader, or somebody on behalf of the government, indicating what arrangements are to be proposed to ensure that the House is in readiness to respond to any situation that may arise with regard to the air traffic difficulties? It would certainly be the wish of members on this side of the House to discharge their responsibilities and to be here either tonight or tomorrow, or as long as we may need to sit, in order to carry out our responsibilities.

Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale): Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the course of wisdom would be that the difficulties should be clearly identified before the House makes any decision as to its course of action.
