

Introduction of Bills

I hope, Mr. Speaker, that you will remind Hon. Members about the importance of this principle established as it is, I think, in our Standing Orders.

Mr. Speaker: I thank the Hon. Member for Windsor West (Mr. Gray) for bringing this matter to the attention of all Hon. Members. Of course, the Hon. Member is absolutely right. Once the vote is called, Hon. Members who have not taken their places must stay away until a new vote is called. This is a long-standing rule and tradition in this place and I know that other Hon. Members, at least for the next minute or so, will want to rise to approve of the comments made by the Hon. Member for Windsor West. I see other Hon. Members seeking the floor. I may be able to assist all Hon. Members by saying that it is six o'clock.

This House now stands adjourned until eleven a.m. tomorrow morning.

The House adjourned at 6 p.m.
