secure. At least I hope they are because I will need my income as it is to carry on here.

I have not as yet heard the result of the Ontario election, on account possibly of my absence from Tokyo. I notice some further newspapers have arrived. Mr. Rowell and Sir John Aird, however, indicated that Mr. Ferguson had made practically a clean sweep of the province.

I read in the local papers as to Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's visit. I am told the impressions he left were very good. I well know that there are in some cases backgrounds extremely difficult to forget but I do believe that Mr. MacDonald's visit to the United States has done good.

I hope your health continues to improve. I often think of you. Please accept my very best wishes and convey also my very kindest regards to Lady Currie.

Yours sincerely,
