Dear Sir Arthur:

Do you remember me, Elsie Shrapnel Phipps, whom you used to know years ago?

I am writing you because we, my husband and self, are in the greatest trouble, and I believe you are able, and will be willing, to help us out. I think of you, because of what I read of your actions during the war - your faith in God, and your kindness to others.

I surely would not trouble you now, as I know you are busy doing good work; only our dire & trying forces me.

Three months ago my husband W. H. S. Phipps had to resign from the Bank of Montreal on account of overdrawing to the amount of $500 at the time of my confinement about a
