Board of Health Complains of Action of Board of Control.

HAMILTON, Nov. 29 .- (Special.) - At the meeting of the board of health this evening. William Farrar suggested that a member of it should have a seat on the board of control. He complained that the board of control pared down the board of health's appropriation Frank Quinn agreed with Mr. Farrar, and it was finally agreed that the latter receive the board sendorsation. The matter was not taken seriously by Mr. matter was not taken seriously by Mr. Farrar, and it is not likely that he will run. The board also passed a resolution, whereby it will be possible for the medical health officer and two members to decide whether a house is fit for babitation.

OBITUARY.

Joseph Cook.

Joseph Cook, a well known live stock dealer of Watford, died at his home on Monday, Nov. 28, 1910. Mr. Cook has not been in the best of health for some time, his son has been coming to the market in his stead. The deceased was well liked by those in the trade, who came in contact with him in business. He was almost in the prime of life, being only 56 years of age.
