William Davies Company and

William Davies Company and Colonial Theatre Delay Building.

The site on which the Adams Furnature Company are to build their new premises on Yonge street is being rapidly cleared. Immediately basement digging is completed, building operations will commence in real earnest, and Messrs. Adams hope to be in possession of their new premises in the latter part of the present year.

The William Davies Company, who in possession of their new premises in the latter part of the present year.

The William Davies Company, who bought the Franklin premises on West Queen street, will not commence alterations or any building operations for some months to come. When the premises have been adapted to their requirements they will move the business now being conducted in the Adams block on Queen street to the new site.

The Colonial Theatre, which is be-

The Colonial Theatre, which is being reconstructed by Messrs, Franklin, will not be ready for occupation for over two months, as the alterations are taking longer than expected. When completed a very up-to-date picture house will have been created. Besides a modern slanting ground floor, two well-appointed galleries will be found in the house. In addition to the moving picture house Messrs. Franklin are constructing offices for Franklin are constructing offices for their own business use upon the prem-

ROSY CHEEKS AND GOOD HEALTH

Come Through Keeping the Blood in a Rich, Red and Pure Condition.

When a girl-or a woman-finds her color fading, when her cheeks and grow pale, and she gets short of breath easily and her heart palpitates after the slightest exertion, or aunder the least excitement, it means that she is suffering from anaemiawatery blood. backache frequently accompany this condition, and nervousness is often present

The remedy for this condition is to build up the blood, and for this purpose there is no medicine that can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They build up and renew the blood, bring brightness to the eyes, color to the cheeks, and a general feeling of renewed health and energy. The only other treatment needed is plenty of sunlight, moderate exercise and good, box provided for them inside the theplain food. The girl or woman who atre. gives this treatment a fair trial will soon find herself enjoying perfect health. Mrs. Hiram Shook, R. R. "Mickey" Continues at the Grand.
The picture drama, "Mickey," is establishing a record for screen dramas in Toronto, for, commencing Monday next, the picture will enter upon its fourth week at the Grand Opera House. It is a well-constructed photodrama, with an interesting story, clever professionals interpreting the parts and portraying the characters in an artistic manner, sensational climaxes following thrilling situations ending with a realistic racing scene in which the horses are shown in the paddock, on the track at the post and running the race. At Loew's Next Week.

The story of a brave young girl's constancy under trying circumstances, of the splandid attentions. of the splendid stimulus she gives to the man she loves, urging him on to finer achivement, helping him when he stumbles and falls, is unfolded in "The Home Town Girl," featuring CLAIMS FUNERAL BENEFIT.

Judgment was reserved by Judge Coatsworth in the county court yesterday in the action brought by Mrs. Eliza Hamilton, against the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes for $800 funeral benefits, which sum plaintiff claims was due to James Hamilton, her son, association when he died last fall. The defence claims that Hamilton was not in good standing at the time of his death, as a result of being behind in his dues.

Barron and Burt, the Character actors; in a hilarious skit called "Shut Up," brimful of a clever line of cross-fire. Goetz and Duffy, dispensers of melody and mirth; the Jordan Girls, in an aerial originality; the Wilson Travitor arriai originality; the Wilhout Troupe of cyclists; Loew's British-Canadian Weekly, and London's funeral tribute to Nurse Cavell, are among the other features billed. At the Allen Theatre.

Next week at the Allen Marguerite Clark will appear in her latest Paramount picture, "Come Out of the Kitchen." It shows Miss Clark more vivacious, more versatile, more per-suasive than she has ever been-a source of pleasure to the spectator every moment she is on view. Miss Clark's leading man is Eugene O'Brien, well known to moving picture followers as "the perfect lover." Marguerite Clark as Claudia became a cook to from anaemia— save the family home. She played at Headache and basting chickens for a handsome bachelor. His servant problem was to keep him out of the kitchen. But she couldn't do it. A beautiful cook! Beautiful—yes.
