PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

In the announcement that the famous musical comedy success, "The School Girl," will appear at the Princess Theatre, the week after next, theatregoers have the positive assurance that they will see a production of genuine merit. "The School Girl" was first presented a chain of incidents more consecutive than is usually found in plays of this description. Beautiful scenery and dresses and music, which, besides containing all the elements of popularity, reaches to a high artistic level. The his property, lost his life; an officer was killed in attempting the arrest; the outlaws, capture followed swiftly, and the Biddies were sentenced to death and confined to the Pittsburg jail. Their escape was made thru the help of the warden's wife, over whom Ed Biddle had used his great hypnotic power and persuaded her to accompany them in their flight. The story as depicted on the stage is a most interesting one, and nothing has been left undone to make this present season's presentation the most successful that it has yet received.

It is seldom that so many favorite actors and singers are brought together as those which will be heard in "San Toy." The attraction at the Grand next week, "San Toy" is held to be the most entertaining musical play now before the public. The story tells how a Mandarin, Yen How, in order to save his daughter, San Toy, from the emperor, raises her as a boy and gets along very nicely until she is in love with an English soldier. The courtship has almost reached the eloping stage when the emperor orders Yen How to send his daughter to the forbidden city, where she dons dresses and becomes a great favorite with the emperor, who finally revokes the order he had given to have Yen How beheaded. After many complications and intrigues the emperor sanctions the marriage of San Toy and the English soldier. The stage pictures are beautiful. The management has provided new scenery, and imported from China an expensive new wardrobe for this year's production. The company is a large one, including such well-known people as George E. Mack, Edward Bagley, H. B. Burcher, W. L. Romaine, Nagel Barry, Fred P. Huntley, Florence Smith, Viola Kellogg, Mabel Strickland, Dorothy Marlowe and many others, assisted by a grand chorus of select voices.

WHERE IS JOHN DIMING?

He is Wanted Again on Charges of Theft—Looks Innocent.

John Diming, an escaped boy, is wanted again for theft of a horse and rig from J. Anderson, a farmer, living near Weston. The previous experience of this boy with Judge Morgan when he was allowed to go upon suspended sentence, twice for theft, have not had any effect on him.

A few days ago Anderson took on a boy who answers the description of Diming. Thursday morning, Edward, as he gave his name to be, was missing. So was a fine horse and rig. Diming is also blamed for the disappearance of a horse from the stable of J. Baker, a farmer, near Weston. County Constable Burns yesterday recovered a horse and rig belonging to George Henry, who lives on the second concession of East York. They were found in the west end of the city.

JOINT NOTE IN DISPUTE.

Money Loaned Late David Lemay, Jr. in Question.

Before the next session of the non-jury assizes the claim of Alfred Laid, a barrister, for $900 against the estate of David Lemay, Jr., will be heard. The validity of the debt is disputed by David Lemay, Jr., who is the administrator of the estate. According to the history of the case it is claimed that Lemay, Jr., and E. W. Coulson signed a note for $800 to play the lottery on Aug. 7, 1902. The money was loaned at the rate of 24 per cent. Lemay, Jr., paid the claim tested immediately, but the master-in-chambers could not issue an order until two weeks later, and the case will wait until the assizes.

STILL ANOTHER ROBBERY.

The Buffalo gang are still in evidence around Toronto. Their latest scene of operations is the downtown district. Thursday night Edgar A. House, 172 Leslie street, was robbed of $10 and some small change by a back fellow on West Adelaide street. He was dragged into a vacant lot, where the robber yanked place. He gave a good description of the robbers, which is very much similar to that given to the police of the Buffalo gang.

Wants His Daughter.

Justice Magee in Osgoode Hall yesterday issued an order to Mrs. Nellie Marsden of 605 West King street, bringing forward the small daughter of Y. J. Giroux of York Township next Thursday. Up to the present time she has refused to give up the child, which was left with her four years ago when Giroux's wife died at her house. On Aug. 21 Giroux, who is an employee of the London Mutual Fire Insurance Co., was taken to the hospital, where he died.

Misleading Cablegram.

"Dead," a one word cablegram received by Arthur K. Woolley of the London Mutual Fire Insurance Co., this city on Thursday was misleading for a time. It did not state whether it was Mr. Woolley's father, who had died, or his mother, who had died. A later cable told the news that it was the grandfather, who had died.

The very name conveys to men of every nationality the idea of great wealth. It has just begun to dawn upon investors that the half has not been told. American, English, French and German capital is all being directed to Mexican development; and Canada last, but not least, has at least one Hundred Million Dollars invested in Electric Power Plants, Railroads, Mines and Plantations.

THE CANADIAN STEAMSHIPS have full cargoes each way already, and Southern Mexico will soon be as well known to Canadians as our own Dominion.

A new railroad across the Continent, between the Tehuantepec National and the Panama Road, is the latest Canadian enterprise. Many millions of dollars in dividends will be returned to Canadian shareholders from these investments; but infinitely greater than any of these will be the returns from cabinet and carriage woods, rubber, sisal fibre, sugar, coffee, chocolate and fruits. The coffee crop this year is 300,000 barrels, and the Mexican Herald states as follows: "Demand for Mexican coffee in New York exceeds supply. Mexican coffees are commanding the highest prices of any on the market."

The Chimalapa Land Company have purchased two hundred and three square miles of land, of such elevation and variety of soil that it will grow any and all of these products to perfection. Mahogany, cedar and other beautiful woods, growing for six miles along the banks of two fine rivers, have a net value of Thirty Million Dollars. Growing on the great estate, mostly without cultivation, is rubber, Chiclé Ixle, a valuable fibre, rubber, vanilla, chocolate, oranges, lemons, limes, bananas, sugar, coffee, tobacco, and many wild fruits.

Near the property are many flourishing rubber, sugar and coffee plantations. Transportation facilities are fine; climate healthy—and there are over ten towns and villages in the near vicinity.

Owing to the death of some of the owners, this great estate had to be administered and sold intact. It was sold at such a low figure that one hundred dollars represents thirteen acres of land and timber. The Company have a ready market for all kinds of timber at a large profit, and it is the intention to pay dividends from this source until rubber comes into bearing.

It is impossible to lose, because the land is now being sold at a profit without the timber—which is estimated at two hundred dollars per acre.

This is your opportunity. Cut this out and think it over. Learn about rubber, which the leading men of our time say is the safest and most profitable investment known. The Company will pay travelling expenses of bona fide investors. Address—
