FIVE FAVORITES IN FRONT

AND AGAIN FURNISHED THE SECOND CHOICE THAT WON.

The Jockey Club Handicap Made the Only Class Contest of the Day—Fields Were Generally Small—Maiden, Maiden, Maiden, Maiden and Maiden.

Holdy weather arrived yesterday, and although it was a day behind time, it was none the less a day to race. High winds and a warm sun had dried the Woodbine track out admirably, and the only effect of the rain to be seen was a freshening up of the park.

THE GREEN HUNTERS The Green Hunters' Steeplechase resulted in a runaway race for the favorite, All Blue, who took the whip from Johnston and made the running for over half the journey, when they were joined by the Sangam pair. At the head of the stretch, he was well ahead of the other two, but he was overtaken by the Sangam pair.

THE OTHER TWO. Edna D. at 1 to 3, beat her only two competitors, Partridge and Fiddle, in a race that was fairly close.

KAPANGA COLE WENT THE LAST. The last race went to Dr. Smith's unnamed brother, Klinton, who was heavily played by the public and won all the way.

WOODSTOCK PLATE TO-MORROW. This is the Ontario Jockey Club's off-day. To-morrow the program will be: Flash Stakes, 5/8 mile; Maiden Stakes, 1/2 mile; Woodstock Plate, 1/2 mile; Hotel Plate, selling, 1/2 mile.

FIVE FAME FINISHERS. It was a fairly good afternoon's sport, though the racing was hardly up to the previous days. With the exception of a few bad spots, the day was fairly good.

THE DON PURSE. The Don Purse, six furlongs, started the ball rolling. It had five starters, with Miss Young in the saddle.

THE TWO-HORSE RACE. Maiden and Pines were the only two to put in an appearance in the two-horse race, which was fairly close.

THE SAPPHEE STAKES. Oakley, May 26—First race, 5 furlongs—Edna D., 1 to 3; Partridge, 2 to 1; Fiddle, 3 to 1.

SUBITO WENT THE HANDICAP. The Jockey Club Handicap, an odds-on favorite at odds, and 4 to 5, notwith-

The Saddle Question.

The above is an illustration of the old style saddle. Fits like a glove—but a saddle should fit like a glove. Just the reverse. When you ride a bicycle you want a seat that will support the body and prevent injury.

Illustration shows the new CHRISTY ANATOMICAL SADDLE. See that it is fitted to your bicycle. It is light, strong, and makes cycling a pleasure.

Costs $5.00—and is worth it. Booklet on Christy Saddle Free.
