Steel Co. Will Get Site. Steel Co, Will Get Site.

The Works Committee on Thursday afternoon adopted the recommendation of the sub-committee, which endorsed the application of the Toronto Steel Works for a site at the foot of Cherrystreet. The committee will recommend to Council that a lease of seven acres be granted to the applicants. This is only half of the ground asked by the company in the original proposition, but it is understood that it will be accepted. A strip of 150 feet is to be reserved as a public roadway. The lease will run for 21 years at a rental of $500 per annum with taxes as alof $500 per annum with taxes as al-ready agreed by the company. The city will continue to dump refuse to make more land until four more acres are filled in. The blessing to-day was of the church, which is a handsome structure, in the French remaissance style, 90 by 160 feet, with two towers and transents. The stained glass windows are already in, and the appointments are in every sense modern.

After the address a complimentary luncheon was tendered to the visitors, at which speeches were made complimenting Father Laboureau upon the opening of the church on his birthday.

County Police Court.

In the County Police Court on Thursday William Horin of Vaughan Township was committed for trial on a charge of assaulting Robert Lelliott at Hughes' Hotel, Thornhill. A further charge of disorderly conduct, brought against William Horin, was left over for a week, the defendant pleading not guilty. A charge of theft of articles from the house of Mrs. Mary Burke was preferred against John Brennan, and was 'taken up. He was committed for trial, as was also Allen McGuire, who was also implicated in the case. Magistrate Woodcock of Newmarket presided over the court.
