THE COBALT STRIKE

To End in a Half-Union and Half Non-Union Camp.

Cobalt, Aug. 18 .- It is probable now that the strike will exhaust itself, and that the camp will gradually resume work again about half union and half non-union. Men are coming into the camp all the time in twos and threes, and going to work, and many of the old men who can escape the notice of the union are going back to work. On the other hand, mine owners, tired of occurred here at an early hour this seeing their properties standing idle morning. at the most active and crucial stage of their development, are likely to give in to the demands of the union and work union hours and union scale. A recent instance of this is the King Edward mine.

In addition there are a number of mines on the outskirts of the district which have remained neutral and not been interfered with. So that in rived on the scene between 1 and ? a month the camp ought to be going o'clock. again with almost full gangs.

Representatives of the strikers stated that reports received were of the men who are out.

The local union met tonight, when several speeches were made. Later it was announced that it had been decided at the meeting to make certain demands upon the Wall street brokers, and that the brokerage houses which had not already done so, would be given until tomorrow noon to sign the union scale. It was also stated that the strikers had decided to begin at once the publication of a daily paper, which would set forth the strikers' side of the controversy. The special lease wire news service was materially improved today throughout the country.
