THE NIAGARA POWER LEGISLATION.

What is the head and front of Sir James Whitney's offending over the Niagara power legislation. Simply that he has prevented vexatious and oppressive appeals to the courts intended to delay or subvert a policy that received the approval of an overwhelming majority of the people of the Province of Ontario. Nor was the subject matter of that policy foreign to the popular will. It dealt with a provincial asset of incalculable value, the property of the people themselves. It sought to secure that the people should obtain a fair share of the advantages coming directly from a vast natural resource which certain rings of high financiers were striving to monopolize for their own private profit. If ever precautionary and protective legislation was justified it was in the case of the hydro-electric acts of the provincial legislature.

Not once, but repeatedly the people of the municipalities concerned in Niagara power declared themselves in favor of the Whitney-Beck policy. They did so knowing exactly that the hydro-electric commission was constituted to act, not independently of them, but as trustees for them. They had faith that the representations made were based on conservative estimates and that the price charged for Niagara white coal would cover only the legitimate charges of the enterprise. The opponents of the power policy sought to upset the municipal bylaws on a pure technicality and now that it is plain the commission's estimates were well within the mark, the wisdom and propriety of the government's action is sufficiently manifest. The validation of the bylaws passed by the municipalities, in full knowledge of the circumstances and of the position occupied by the commission, was perfectly right and justifiable.

It is significant that the parties who denounce the hydro-electric policy never challenge or protest against the methods of public service corporations in dealing with the franchise entrusted to them. The lawyers who hold the government up to execration consider it legitimate and allowable to devise schemes for circumventing onerous contracts and for evading legal obligations. That of course is permissible since it is the people that are being fleeced and plundered. But if the people insist on their right to call to time corporations that are trustees for the proper conduct of public services, and to demand a square deal from them, their defenders and apologists can scarcely find words where to deplore the injury done to equity. But this sort of thing has its limits. The public has got thoroughly tired of the ways of public service companies, and their constant efforts to invert their contracts and escape their undertakings by means of legal technicalities.

DR. DENNEY IN TORONTO.

Dr. James Denney, who preached in Toronto last night, not only holds a distinguished position in the United Free Church of Scotland, that of professor of New Testament Language, Literature and Theology in its Glasgow College, but is a divine of international reputation. His last book and perhaps his greatest is entitled "Jesus and the Gospels," with the sub-title "Christianity Justified in the Mind of Christ." The volume has had an immense circulation for a theological work, and has caused a proportionate sensation.

After a consideration of Christianity as it is exhibited in the New Testament, and the resurrection of Jesus, the largest section of the volume is devoted to the self-revelation of Jesus, a close examination of the gospels with the object of exhibiting Jesus' own view of His office, work and person. While Dr. Denney substantially accepts the results of the higher or historical criticism, he does not always adopt the conclusions of the critics, and his breadth of view and abounding charity are conspicuous.

"The question," he says, "which Jesus asks, and which is of vital importance, is 'Who say ye that I am?' not, 'How think ye that I came to be?' No doubt the two questions must be related somehow, but happily it is possible to answer the first, by assuming the Christian attitude to Christ, while the other remains in abeyance."

"No purely historical evidence," he observes, "will ever make the supernatural birth of Christ credible except to a mind which has already, on independent grounds, surrendered to the impression of the supernatural in His person. No one can deny that it is possible so to surrender. . . ."

All thru the earliest records, he contends Christ revealed Himself to men as the only Son of God, the Lord and Saviour of men, and won recognition and devotion in that character.

"But He does so without making the faintest allusion anywhere to the manner in which He came into the world. It is easy to find reasons why He should not have done so, even assuming that the gospel narratives of His birth are true; but that does not alter the fact that without disclosing the secret of His origin at all Jesus sought and found faith from men."

It is not on the answer to the question of His origin at all that a man's Christianity depends, Dr. Denney remarks, but on the believing Christian attitude to Christ.

over 65 years. You don't experiment when you buy it.

Mrs. JOSEPH MACKRETT, Hunterville, Ont., writes: "It gives me much pleasure to write you of the wonderful benefit I have found in your medicine. Last summer I was sick with it. The baby would take it, and after trying many remedies, which were of no use, I suggested we should try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. After giving three or four bottles I found a great change, and now my little one is as well as ever. We have never been without it since, and I have recommended it to my friends."

Mrs. S. A. HARRISON, Napawa, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure to send you this testimonial of what Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has done in our family. My daughter's little girl, three years old, took summer complaint and was nearly dead. After all other remedies failed I thought of your remedy. The first dose gave relief and the third cured her. My son had diarrhoea and a few doses stopped it right away. I advise all mothers to have a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract on hand all the time. It is a grand medicine for young and old, and I cannot recommend it too highly in all trouble where the bowels become too loose. A few doses will check the trouble at once."

all Christians accept the same Christology, we may as well give up the thought of unity at once," is his view, and this follows the broad statement that has attracted so much attention.

"Looking back to the investigations which we have just completed, and recalling the significance which Jesus had in His own mind, and has always had in the minds of Christians, it is perhaps not too bold to suggest that the symbol of the church's unity might be expressed thus:

"I believe in God thru Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord and Saviour."

Squad of Police Will Take Charge of Street Traffic From To-Day.

Drivers of all kinds and bicyclists will do well to paste these rules in their hats and on their rear ends, and every day the difference in the rule of the road here, to go to the right instead of to the left, as in Britain and Ireland.

All vehicles, including bicycles, shall keep to the right, and as near as possible to the curb.

Slow-moving vehicles must keep close to the curb, and allow faster-moving vehicles to pass them.

Vehicles overtaking others shall, in passing, keep to the left, but not go over the centre line of the street, the rule being that one-half of the street is reserved for traffic moving in one direction, and the other half for traffic moving in the opposite direction.

A vehicle turning to the right into another street shall turn the corner as near the curb as practicable.

A vehicle turning to the left into another street shall pass to the right of and beyond the centre of the street intersection before turning.

Vehicles approaching a street car discharging or taking on passengers must give way with great caution and stop, if necessary, to avoid accidents.

The speed of vehicles must be slackened at crossing when foot passengers are upon them.

The police, when enforcing these regulations, will, for a time, make reasonable allowance for the ignorance of the drivers, and endeavor to obtain compliance with the law by remonstrance and advice before resorting to extreme measures.

Constables Reburn (133), Taylor (118), Wilson (120) and Norton (84), of No. 1 Division; Bond (182), Third (174), and Wilson (133), of No. 2 Division, and Smith (123), O'Meara (127) and Follett (129), of No. 3 Division, have been detailed as the squad to take charge of the regulation of street traffic from to-day.

Falls From Roof, Unhurt.

CHATHAM, July 25.—(Special).—Gideon Jewell, a Scotch African veteran, while shingling a barn yesterday, met with a thrilling and remarkable experience while going up the roof of a barn. The scantling upon which he was resting gave way and he fell to the ground, a distance of 20 feet, alighting on his shoulders. He received only a few bruises and was able to continue his work on the roof immediately afterwards.

Field Secretary Appointed.

Rev. C. V. Pilcher, M.A., B.D. (Oxon.), a former professor at Wycliffe College, has been appointed by the Bishop of Toronto field secretary for Sunday schools in the diocese. The appointment was made on the unanimous recommendation of the Sunday school committee of the synod.

Mr. Pilcher, who is an Oxford graduate, is 30 years of age. He is the son of Rev. Francis Pilcher, rector of St. Clement's Church, Oxford, England; his mother was a grandniece of Charlotte Elliott, author of "Just as I Am" and other familiar hymns.

BOURASSA MORE BOLD
DENOUNCING LAURIER

Demonstration at Soulanges Addressed by Nationalist Leader and Fournier.

MONTREAL, July 25.—(Special).—The Bourassa wave rolls higher and higher this province and every day the Nationalist leader's denunciation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's methods grows bolder.

A demonstration was held to-day at Coteau Landing, County of Soulanges, in sympathy with Jules Fournier, the imprisoned Nationalist writer. Mr. Bourassa being present to address two thousand people from all over the Counties of Soulanges, Vaudeville, Beauharnois and Huntingdon.

Mr. Fournier being at home, his address was a very brief one. He wanted the Quebec government to understand that the Nationalist group would never be silenced, and they would go to jail a dozen times before bending the knee to place and power.

Mr. Bourassa was wildly cheered as he described Sir Wilfrid Laurier rising in all his majesty to support the motion of Sir Louis-Alexandre Taschereau, Judge Tuck for having condemned John V. Ellis for using the exact language of Jules Fournier in The Nationalist.

He said the time was at hand when free men must ask themselves if they want to go back to the time when the judges of the land were the mere creatures of the executive.

TO STOP MULLOCK DEAL

J. Ross Robertson Secures Injunction From Courts.

An interim injunction to prevent the sale by the city of land on the eastern shore of Toronto harbor and 17 acres of water lots to the National Iron Co. was granted by Justice Britton on Saturday, on application of J. Ross Robertson, proprietor of The Evening Telegram.

F. R. MacKellan, formerly in the city solicitor's department, represented Mr. Robertson. The main basis on which the injunction is asked is that the city council voted for the sale in the mistaken belief that the property contained only 22 acres, whereas on the statement of Assessment Commissioner Forman, it actually covers 26.95 acres. It is also alleged that the city, in undertaking to dredge a 14-foot channel along the south side of the property, is granting a bonus in violation of the statutes governing the bonusing of industries. The work is returnable July 28, when argument as to whether the injunction should be made permanent will be heard.

Canadians and the United States.

Writing to The Chicago Tribune, R. E. Lidgerwood says: "The Tribune always takes a cheerful view of anything bordering on the agreeable, as it did in its Sunday editorial in reference to the offensive article in The Toronto World."

It was not the "blooming thing" The World said, but the bloody way it said it, don't you know? If, as The Toronto World said, "the United States is the worst governed country on the earth," why is it that there are more good Canadians living in the United States to-day than there are in Canada? Perhaps The World is only trying to jolly its home-made pessimists who can't get away.

The thorough Englishman is a jolly fellow, and I think he likes us better than do the Canadians.

THIRTEEN GOVERNMENTS TO PROTECT THEIR GIRLS

Canada Enters Agreement to Deal With Serious and Growing Class of Crimes.

OTTAWA, July 24.—(Special).—The Canada Gazette to-day announces the terms of an international agreement for the controlling of the white slave traffic.

The agreement is for the purpose of providing for women of age, deceived or under restraint, as also for women and girls under age, an adequate protection against the criminal traffic known as the white slave traffic.

Thirteen governments have agreed to the agreement, each naming a plenipotentiary to see to its enforcement.

There are several clauses to the agreement, the most important of which are: Each of the contracting governments undertakes to appoint or designate an authority, whose duty will be to gather all the information concerning the hiring of women and girls for immoral purposes in foreign places; this authority to have the similar information furnished in each of the contracting states.

Will Keep Close Watch.

Each of the governments undertakes to have a strict watch kept for the purpose of seeking, especially at the railway stations, ports of departure and during voyage, the conductors of women and girls intended for debauchery. Instructions will be sent to the officers and all other competent persons to obtain within legal limits all the information leading to a criminal traffic.

The arrival of persons likely to be the authors of such traffic will be signalled, if necessary, either to the authorities at the place of landing, or to the diplomatic or consular agents concerned, or to all other competent authorities. The governments undertake to provisionally place the victims of the traffic in institutions, and, as far as possible, send back to their own countries those who ask repatriation. Where the person cannot reimburse the cost of her journey, it will be defrayed by the country on whose territory she resides, as far as the next frontier or port of departure, and the surplus by the country of origin.

Countries in Agreement.

The contracting governments undertake to exercise as far as possible a watch agencies employing women and girls in foreign countries. The list of countries, British colonies and protectorates, which have decided to adhere to the white slave traffic agreement are: Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Brazil, Denmark, Argentina, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Switzerland, Bahamas, Barbados, British Guiana, Canada, Ceylon, Commonwealth of Australia, Cambodia, Gold Coast, Malta, Newfoundland, Northern Nigeria, Southern Rhodesia, Trinidad, Windward Islands.

Public Has No Right to Share of Legal Earnings

Man's Right to Ownership of Property Can't be Denied, Says Rockefeller.

NEW YORK, July 25.—While he is not quoted directly, The New York World to-day prints, under a Cleveland, Ohio, date what professes to be the sum and substance of John D. Rockefeller's attitude on the proposed income tax.

"His convictions," says The World, "he has expounded in substance as follows: When a man has accumulated a sum of money within the law, that is to say, in a legally honest way, the people no longer have any right to share in the earnings resulting from that accumulation. The man has respected the law in accumulating his money. His post facto laws should not apply to property rights. Man's rights to undivided ownership of his property, whatever form, cannot be denied him in any process short of confiscation."

The same article says that the old man has determined to consent to no more newspaper or magazine interviews because "all newspapers and magazines are inclined to treat me fairly in theory, but attack me viciously in practice."

The newspapers can show their good will and friendliness, he is said to have remarked, by not pressing him for further interviews.

Concerning the opposition to the income tax with which Mr. Rockefeller is credited, it is estimated that it would mean a loss of between $150 to $400,000 to him on the roughest estimate that his income is between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 annually. One per cent. on this would range from $150,000 to $200,000, while the maximum would be reached on the two per cent. basis.

Work Begun on the New Dale Presbyterian Church.

In spite of the rain a very large congregation gathered yesterday afternoon to witness the turning of the first sod of the new Dale Presbyterian Church at the corner of Bellwoods-avenue and Queen-street.

The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. D. Morrow. Music was furnished by the Lippincott Salvation Army Band. After reading of Scripture by Rev. W. B. Findlay of St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church, and prayer by the moderator of the presbytery, Rev. R. M. Hamilton of West-wood, J. Ross Robertson turned the first sod for the new building with a handsome spade which had previously been presented by the moderator. Mr. Robertson was also presented with an address.

The new church, which is to be a very large one, measuring 100x110 feet, with seating accommodation for 1700 persons, will take about a year to build. It will be of the most modern fireproof construction, with reinforced concrete floors. The total cost, including the organ, will be in the neighborhood of $100,000.
