McTigue Beat Billiard in Pitchers' Battle by One Run-Baseball Scores and Records.

All is again forgiven. Our boys redeemed themselves on Saturday by taking the enemy into camp in a pitchers' battle between McTigue and Billiard. It was the Leafs' last fixture prior to their little visit over the western end of the International circuit. Joe Birmingham's lads had it over Dave Shean's Grays from Providence in every department, but only a margin of one run, 4 to 3. Providence was indulged in a short lead, the enemy scoring one in the first. Then we even ed up and passed thom in the third. The tourists acced two in the fourth and we came back with a brace in our half, leaving us still one ahead, where we stayed until the last chapter. The runs were scored as follows:

—Providence—

First innings, 1 run—Rehg flew to Murray. Powell walked. Shean rolled to box and was out, Powell taking second. Onslow hit to left and Powell scored, tho it looked as if McKee got the ball on him at the plate. Tutweller fanned.

Fourth innings, 2 runs—Tutweiler doubled to centre. Fabrique sacrificed. Prairard singled to third, Tutweiler scoring, affebrique went to second on the trowsin, and stole third, Tutweiler scoring, affebrique went to second on the trowsin, and stole third, Yelle rolled to short and was out, Fabrique scoring. Billiard fanned.

SATURDAY GAMES IN INTERNATIONAL

At Montresi, after battling fourteen innings on Friday, the Richmond and Montreal teams had another extra innings affair Saturday, the Royals winning out in the 10th, 3 to 2. Both Cadore and Ross pitched in good shape, tho
Ross's wildness in the final innings enabled the locals to win out. The game, was a fairly well played one, some pretty catches being made on both sides. Clemens, with a home run drive over the left field fence which scored Ross ahead of him, was responsible for both of the

NINETEEN STRAIGHT BASEBALL RECORDS BIG LEAGUE RECORD INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York Giants Within Three Games of Mark Made Ten Years Ago by White Sox.

With sixteen straight, two garnered at the expense of Boston Saturday, the Giants are in shooting distance of several time-honored records that were made ten or more years ago. Just two more games and they will equal the record of the Giants, pennant-winners for the first time in 1905, when they won eighteen games straight. Let them hang on and win three more, and they'll equal the top-notch record of the major leagues, that of nineteen straight, made by the Chicago White Sox in 1906.

Chicago White Sox in 1906.

The scores on Saturday were 4 to 2 and 2 to 1. Up to the ninth innings of the opening game, the Boston team had little opportunity for scoring, but in that session Gowdy singled and Connelly, batting for Allen, did likewise. Maranville sacrificed, and, after Evers had popped to Fletcher, Collins hit to Merkle, who made a good stop, but threw wild to Anderson at first base, and two runs came in, tying the score.

In the ninth innings, Robertson singled and went to second on Compton's fumble. Doyle flied to Collins, and Kauff was purposely passed. Fletcher drove in the winning run with a single to left.

In the second game, Ragan held New York to five hits, all of which were for extra bases, and the two runs scored were both earned. Benton kept the Boston hits well scattered until the eighth, when the bases were filled, with no one out. A double-play followed, Maranville scoring while it was being made.

At Philadelphia on Saturday, Brooklyn won two games from Philadelphia, 8 to 3 and 6 to 0, and took first place from the home team. In the first game, after Philadelphia got three runs thru Pfeffer's wildness in the opening innings, he settled down and pitched in grand style. Chalmers was taken off the rubber in the third innings, and McQuillan did good work until the ninth, when three errors and five hits gave Brooklyn six runs and victory.

Brooklyn landed the second game by hitting Demaree's delivery hard, while Coombs permitted only one player to get past first base, and none beyond the second sack.

At Cincinnati on Saturday, timely hitting and bases on balls enabled Chicago to take the third game of the series with Cincinnati, 3 to 2. In the first innings Flack was given a pass. Williams singled and Flack scored on Schulte's single. Zimmerman's sacrifice fly brought in Williams. The visitors scored their last run in the third innings, when McCarthy tripled, and scored on Williams' sacrifice fly. Cincinnati scored in the first, when Groh walked, Neale sacrificed, and Clarke singled. In the third Neale, who had reached first as the result of a base on balls and a force out, scored on Chase's triple.

At Washington (American) on Saturday, Washington defeated the Athletics twice, 5 to 3 and 3 to 1, and went into first place. Bunched hits off Bush gave the Senators a victory in the first game. Gallia was effective thruout, holding the visitors to six scattered hits.

In the second game, Walter Johnson was at top form and never in danger. Nabors held the Senators to four hits; two less than Johnson allowed, but three of them were bunched in the fourth innings, when the locals scored all their runs. Jamieson's hitting featured the double-header. He drove in five of his team's eight runs, driving out four hits and walking twice.

TED MEREDITH MADE NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Cornell Won American Intercollegiate Track and Field Championship at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 28.-Cornel won the intercollegiate track and field championship in the Harvard Stadium here Saturday for the third consecutive nere Saturday for the third consecutive year, with a total of 45 points to Yale's 29, while the two Pacific Coast universities. Stanford and California, tied for third place, with 22 points each.

The ability of the lithe-limbed youngsters from the other side of the continent is attested by the fact that, with small squads, they outranked Pennsylvania, which scored 18 points; Dartmouth, with 14; Michigan, with 13; Harvard, with 11, and Princeton, with 10.

So keen was the struggle for points that two intercollegiate records and one world's record were supplanted.

Captain J. E. (Ted) Meredith of the Pennsylvania team was the individual hero. The famous Olympic, national and intercollegiate champion closed his track career as a collegian by winning the 440-yard dash in 472-5 seconds, which is a new world's record around a turn. The previous record was 474-5 seconds, held by M. W. (Maxey) Long since 1900.

Later Meredith came back and raced home first in the half-mile run in the remarkable time of 1 minute 53 seconds, which was two-fifths of a second faster than the intercollegiate record made by D. S. Caldwell of Cornell on the same track two years ago.

Captain F. S. Murray of Stanford fairly flew over the high hurdles, winning the 120 yards event in 15 seconds flat, clipping one-fifth of a second from the former record, made by A. B. Shaw of Dartmouth, in 1908. year, with a total of 45 points to Yale's
