John B. Jones, registrar, has received a letter from a party in Leonora, asking for information as to the parents, names of Elizabeth Eugene Macrane, who lived in Indiantown in 1853. Anyone knowing anything about this matter is asked to communicate with Mr. Jones.

The marriage will take place this evening at 8 o'clock of Miss Annie Leggett, daughter of James Leggett, to Roy Northrup. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's father at Pleasant Point.

In St. Luke's church at a quarter to eight this evening, Miss H. D. McKen, who has been for some years in charge of the men's hospital at Ispahan, Persia, in connection with the C. M. S. medical mission, and who is now returning after a long absence, will give an address illustrated by lantern pictures on missionary work in Persia.

A number of the members of the delegation which has been in Ottawa, returned home on the Montreal express today. Owing to the fact that the train was about two and a half hours late, it was nearly three o'clock when they reached the city. Those arriving were: Ald. Hulloch, Beaton, Murray and Lantieri, and Messrs. J. H. McRobbie, W. E. Foster, A. O. Skinner, R. O'Brien, T. H. Estabrook and John Sealy. The others will return tomorrow.

A MESSAGE FROM THE WEST

Under the title of Home Life of Women in Western Canada the advertising department of the Canadian Pacific Railway has issued an alluring little booklet which tells what women are accomplishing in the Canadian West.
 The booklet almost brings to the doors of the East the fresh odors of the new western prairies, the newly turned land, the growing wheat, and the story tells convincingly how the women of the west have assisted in converting this same wheat into cozy and in some cases luxurious homes, bank accounts and the creature comforts which accompany them.
 Typographically, the booklet is a gem. The letter press is freely embellished with well selected cuts, depicting typical western homes and scenes incidental to the western life. The cover page is done in bronze green, with the title in vermilion red, panelled on a background of buff. Under the title appears the keystone of western prosperity—a sheaf of wheat. The whole booklet makes a very attractive little messenger from the women of the west to the men and women of the east.

EVERYBODY IS GOING

Tomorrow night's sports in Victoria Rink, under the management of the big good-natured generals of the peace, will be attended by several thousand people, according to the present outlook. Pretty nearly everybody in town has been approached by the vigilant ticket sellers, and sisters, cousins and aunts will not by a small proportion of the spectators' crowd. The races include over one hundred starters.

Next Thursday night a grand farewell carnival will be held in the Vic.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM HOGAN.
 Word reached the city today of the death of William Hogan, a genial in the penitentiary at Dorchester. Mr. Hogan, who was an elderly gentleman, was formerly a guard in the old reformatory here, and was well known in the city. He is survived by his wife. SERVICE IN ST. GEORGE'S Impressive Memorial Service for Lady Grenfell Held in St. George's Church London—A Gala Performance.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20 (Special)—A special London cable says: Simultaneously with the funeral of the late Lady Victoria Grenfell, eldest daughter of Earl Grey, at Hawick, a memorial service, which was very impressive and largely attended, was held in St. George's church, Hanover Square.
 Lord Strathcona represented the Dominion government. Others present included Lady Grenfell, Lord and Lady Desborough, the Hon. Mrs. John Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harrison Watson, Prince Edward Island; Mrs. Molson MacPherson, of Quebec; F. W. Taylor, of London, manager of the Bank of Montreal.
 Canon Fleming conducted the service, which included Gounod's anthem "All Ye who weep," beautifully sung by the choir and ended with Chopin's funeral march. The deepest sympathy was manifested on all sides.
 A gala performance is to be given in Queen's Hall on April 16 in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the visiting promoters. The Sheffield chorus, which is considered to be the finest choir in all England, will sing.
 The Canadian composer, Dr. Chas. A. E. Harris has been invited to take part, and has chosen to conduct his coronation mass, the music of which will be performed by the Sheffield chorus and the London Symphony Orchestra, the numbering 109 instrumentalists. Beethoven's choral symphony will be rendered the same evening. Herr Arthur Miksch conducting.

KNIGHTS PROVE SPLENDID HOSTS

Pythian Anniversary Celebration Last Evening Was Most Successful—Good Concert, Supper and Dance.

The entertainment held by the Knights of Pythias in the York Assembly rooms last evening in commemoration of the forty-third anniversary of the founding of the order, was a distinct success.
 Over four hundred knights and ladies were present. The first part of the evening was taken up with a programme of musical and literary numbers, which were greatly enjoyed, and this was followed by an informal dance and supper.
 Alfred Dodge, adjutant of the First Regiment U. R. of the maritime provinces, presided and in an opening address he reviewed briefly the history of the order from its founding in the city of Washington, D. C., on February 19, 1864, to the present.
 Following Adjutant Dodge's address, which was received with applause, Harrison's orchestra played an overture and DeWitt Cairns, Mrs. R. T. Worden and Mrs. Otto Nasse sang solos and were obliged to respond to encores. Professor W. E. Bowden pleased the audience with a violin solo and A. E. McKinley gave a reading "The Lifeboat," having to respond with an encore. A string quartet composed of the two Messrs. Hoyt and Messrs. Smith and Donald, were also heard in several instances. Miss Beulah Worden acted as accompanist, her assistance contributing, in no small degree to the enjoyment of the evening.
 At the close of the programme, the chairs were removed from the main room and a programme of twelve dances with several solos was enjoyed. Harrison's orchestra furnishing the music to the satisfaction of all.
 During the dance programme supper was served by caterer S. W. Scammell, in the dining hall. The gathering broke up about 2 o'clock and was voted one of the most successful yet held by the knights.
 Early in March the two companies uniform rank, Victoria, No. 1, and Cygnets, No. 5, will hold a joint installation and inspection, to which the ladies will be invited. This function will be held in the lodge room of the knights on Georgetown street and will be followed by a programme of dancing, and refreshments will be served. It is also intended to hold a "smoker" for the members of the uniform rank, in April, when the question of sending a company to Boston in 1908 for the supreme encampment, will be discussed. A number of knights are making application for admission to the uniform rank, so as to be able to participate in the trip on that occasion.

EQUITY COURT

Case of Winslow vs. Richards et al Heard Yesterday Afternoon

In the equity court yesterday afternoon the case of Warren C. Winslow, K. C., v. Wm. Richards & Co. Ltd., John T. Rundle and Hugh J. Chisholm and Associates was again heard before Mr. Justice Barker.
 The suit is brought by Mr. Winslow, who is a barrister, practising in Chatham, to recover his portion of the difference between what the Wm. Richards property sold at, namely $600,000, and $22,580, the figure named by the Richards company as what they would accept and any excess which he says they agreed to give him and Mr. Rundle.
 Mr. Winslow was on the stand yesterday afternoon for a time, and will occupy the witness box today.
 R. W. McLellan represents the Richards Co. and L. A. Curry, K. C., is counsel with him. Dr. A. O. Earle, K. C., represents the plaintiff, and Hon. Wm. Pugsley is solicitor. The latter was unable to be present yesterday.

SABBATH SCHOOL WORK

Rev. H. B. Ganong, field secretary of the N. B. and P. E. I. S. S. Association, came to the city yesterday from a tour of the upper-province section, and met the committee in field work to outline a plan of action for the coming summer. Revs. D. Hutchinson, S. Howard and Wm. Currie constitute the members of this committee, with T. S. Simms as chairman of the executive. It was arranged that leading pastors and members of the executive committee, with prominent laymen, would represent the association at the many county conventions as the field secretary could not attend.
 Mr. Ganong will be absent for about two months on the trip to the world's convention to be held in Rome in May. It was thought this method of assisting in covering the whole field would be the best available. The next provincial convention will meet in Fredericton in October.
