PESSIMISM WAVE SWEEPS GERMANY

Depression is Intensified by Fearful Epidemic of Typhoid Fever

London, Aug. 24.—A wave of pessimism is sweeping over Germany in regard to the war and its outcome, shown clearly by comments in Berlin newspapers which have reached here. Not only is the Pope's peace move generally regarded as a failure, but the depression of typhoid fever, dysentery and other complaints attributable to insufficient and bad food, which is breaking out in all parts of the Empire. It is no longer possible to conceal this, despite the utmost efforts of the government.

Basle and Zurich, in Switzerland, report that full confirmation has been received of a serious outbreak of typhoid and dysentery in numerous German cities, particularly in Cologne, Karlsruhe, Mannheim and Mulhouse, where the diseases have become epidemic, children and under-fed adults being the first and most numerous victims.

In Mulhouse the epidemic threatened to develop into a panic. Deaths were so numerous that wagons were used to transport the dead to the cemetery to make the rounds nightly and gather the dead under cover of the darkness to prevent the people from learning how grave the situation was.

The Price of Peace Is Prussianism Destroyed

"There can be no peace until Prussianism is destroyed," says the New York World, in answer to the Pope's peace proposal. "Whether it is destroyed from without or from within rests mainly with the German people themselves, but destroyed it must be if there is to be peace in the world. That is now the beginning and the end of the war aims of the Allies, and unless achieved, autocracy has triumphed and German militarism is master of civilization."

"Germany must be beaten, and know she is beaten," says the Louisville Post. And the Chicago Herald warns us that a peace on the Pope's terms "would be a truce, not a peace."

Not only do strong supporters of the war dismiss the "Pope's Peace" as a German ploy, while they urge strenuous waging of war till Germany is made either "powerless or free," but pacifists, Socialists and German-Americans agree in predicting the failure of the new papal efforts at mediation.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST of August 25th is an interesting article reflecting the opinion of the Press of the country on this newest of the peace proposals.
