

ST. JOHN LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Adjourned Annual Meeting
Resumed Yesterday—Child Welfare Director Heard.

The adjourned meeting of the St. John Local Council of Women was resumed yesterday. Miss E. Haslam, V. O. N., who has been director of child welfare in the city under the board of health since last January, told of the conditions which she had found. She said that the infant mortality rate had been 157 out of 1,000 children last year, but an excellent foundation for health work had been laid, and the child welfare exhibit at the fall exhibition had accomplished great things. She appealed for the establishment of a milk fund for needy mothers and children. A vote of thanks was extended to Miss Haslam.

Mrs. W. E. Raymond, who was elected first vice-president in place of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, resigned, was in the chair, and Mrs. Tennant was elected second vice-president.

The common council sent a letter of thanks for the return of the $500 grant for the entertainment of the National Council. Miss Etta Milligan, corresponding secretary, submitted a report. Mrs. Paterson wrote to the council to explain that the sanitary drinking fountain had never been formally handed over to the city. Mrs. A. W. Eatey gave a report of the Easter treat for the Boys' Industrial Home.

The conveners of standing committees were appointed as follows: Agriculture for women, Mrs. H. B. Peck; care of the mentally deficient, Mrs. David McEllis; citizenship, Mrs. H. H. Peck; conservation of natural resources, Miss Tingey; education, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond; equal moral standards, Mrs. J. S. Flagg; finance, Mrs. E. A. Young; fine and applied arts, Mrs. L. Dev. Chipman; household economics, Miss Gladys Dowling, with Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond as ling convenor in her absence; immigration, Mrs. Harold Lawrence; laws for better protection of women and children, Mrs. Travers; nursing, Mrs. W. Eatey; peace and arbitration, Mrs. W. Eatey; press, Miss Alice Fairer; and Miss K. B. Peck; professions for women, Mrs. C. L. B. public health, Mrs. R. J. supervised playgrounds, Mrs. Ood; suppression of objectionable matter, Mrs. James McAvilly; d means, Mrs. J. H. Frink; tax, Mrs. L. Green; child welfare, Mrs. Willard Smith; advertising, Mrs. J. Dood; S. O. S. emergency, Mrs. A. Mulahy; fountain, Mrs. Paterson; and Boys' Industrial Home, Mrs. R. Corbett. A new standing committee, one aim was to be to get new societies federate and which was to be called vigilance committee, was decided upon. Miss Grace W. Leavitt was appointed as convenor. Conveners of standing committees were asked to form their own committees and to call them to order.

The nomination of delegates to attend the annual meeting of the National Council of Women in Calgary from June 8 to 17 were made as follows: Delegates, Miss

POST-LENTEN FESTIVITIES

Pleasing Easter Assemblies
Held in the City Last Evening.

Post-Lenten social activities opened last evening in the city with several delightful assemblies, including a rose ball, given by Valcartier Chapter, I. O. D. E., in the Knights of Pythias Castle, Union street; the Knights of Columbus annual Easter assembly, held in their home in Coburg street; an assembly given by the Carleton Union Lodge No. 8 in the Masonic Hall, West St. John, and a dance in the Orange Hall, Simonds street, in aid of the Provincial Memorial Home for Children.

Roses were the predominant feature of the decorations at the Valcartier chapter affair and the scheme was effectively and beautifully arranged. More than 300 guests were present. They were received by Mrs. F. R. Taylor and Mrs. H. O. Clark. They were assisted in the arrangements for the ball by Mrs. K. B. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell McKay, Mrs. Graham Paterson, Miss Barbara Jack, Mrs. George Miller, Miss Agnes Anderson. During supper Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Heber Vroom and Mrs. J. Pope Barnes poured. A programme of eighteen dances was greatly enjoyed.

The Knights of Columbus home in Coburg street presented a very attractive appearance, being tastefully decorated with purple and white, with white doves of various sizes suspended from the ceiling decorations. The dining room was done in the same colors, and in the parlors vases of fresh cut flowers were used to advantage. The whole decorative scheme, arranged by

A. C. D. Wilson, was splendid and evoked much favorable comment.

The chaplains were Mrs. E. J. Henneberry, Mrs. M. T. Morris and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer. M. T. Morris had charge of the arrangements and the committee in charge of the supper was as follows: Mrs. A. P. Ryan (convenor), Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, Mrs. William Donohue, Mrs. George McCafferty, Mrs. E. P. O'Toole, Mrs. L. A. Conlon, Mrs. John Daley, Mrs. J. R. Nugent, Mrs. Warren Nugent and Mrs. Vincent McGillivray. A programme of some twenty dances was carried out to the accompaniment of Jones' orchestra.

The Masonic Hall was tastefully decorated with spring flowers for the Easter assembly of Carleton Union Lodge. The programme of dances was enjoyed by more than 100 people. Hedley F. Bissett was general convenor, and those on the committee were: Glendon H. Allen, Hedley F. Bissett, Percy F. Brown, J. W. Myles and J. S. Brittain. In charge of the supper were: William Donohue, Mrs. E. J. Henneberry, Mrs. Hedley F. Bissett, Mrs. Glendon H. Allen and Mrs. A. Burnis. Black's orchestra provided the music.

URGENT INSTRUCTION IN HOLY SCRIPTURE

The quarterly meeting of the United Women's Missionary Societies was held yesterday afternoon in the Coburg street Christian church and at it there was passed a resolution advocating the introduction of religious education into the public schools. Mrs. David Willet, the president, was in the chair and led the devotion. Mrs. W. E. McIntyre gave the Bible reading. Mrs. Clifford J. Clark led in prayer and Miss Ernestine Climo sang the solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." Mrs. J. Milton Barnes was her accompanist.

Mrs. Walter Harrison, in speaking of the need of the Grenfell Mission, told of the formation of a local auxiliary. Mrs. G. A. Kuhring gave an address on Christian fellowship and joy as great assets in life, and in speaking for foreign missionaries gave an interesting account of the world Sunday school convention held in Tokyo recently from an account sent by Miss Loretta Shaw of St. John. The resolution, which was carried unanimously, was as follows:—

"Those present at this meeting of the United Women's Missionary Association, being keenly aware of the menace to the youth of this country in the grave and increasing tendency of the times towards secularization and the weakening of controlling spiritual forces, do urge upon the government of this province the immediate necessity of introducing into our schools that which will promote higher ideals in character building and in the construction of ordered and harmonious life. That with this end in view they do request that certain selected passages of the Holy Scriptures suited to the different grades be printed in the school readers of the province and that certain portions of these be memorized by the pupils as part of the year's work.

"And, further, that, in order to avoid danger of fear by any citizens that private privileges might be endangered, a restricting note be printed above such selection to the effect that 'No comment or interpretation be made by the teacher on these passages.'"

"That a copy of this resolution be sent to the secretary of every board represented at this meeting for endorsement and then be forwarded to the government authorities of the province, with the added request that a committee be appointed by them at an early date from representatives of the various churches of the province to carry out the proposal of this resolution."

RECENT DEATHS

Gagetown, N. B., March 28—The death occurred here this evening of Mrs. Elizabeth H. Corey, wife of Amos S. Corey, after an illness of ten days following a stroke of paralysis. The late Mrs. Corey was seventy-eight years of age and leaves, besides her husband, one son, Frederick L., of Gagetown; one brother, George H. V. Belyea, of Edmonston (Alta.); and six sisters, Mrs. Harwood White, of Chatham (Ont.); Mrs. Dr. Lipsitt and Mrs. Joseph Robinson, of Sumnerland (B.
