

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order in the Baptist church at 2 p. m., A. A. Pineo, President, in the chair. Rev. R. D. Ross offered prayer. The "Service of Song" was led by S. W. Farnham during the first half hour.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

It was moved and seconded that all strangers present as Sabbath-school workers, though not delegates, be invited to sit as members of this Convention.

The Sabbath-school visitors gave in their report.

J. W. Caldwell, for Horton, reported that he had visited a number of schools, had helped to organize new ones and to re-organize where the interest had died out.

James T. Elder spoke of visitation work done by him in the outlying sections in his capacity as colporteur.

J. E. Dunham gave a very interesting report of the trials and encouragements in his experience of this work. He visited a number of schools in Cornwallis.

R. W. Killam, Somerset district, testified to the good that had already been done by the visiting agency of this Association.

E. C. Foster, Berwick, read a carefully-prepared and concise report of his work as a visitor. He stated that the principles adopted by the western section of the committee were to gather together in one meeting the schools that were adjacent to each other, and to stir them up by laying the work and aims of the Sabbath-school before them. They also tried to aid the weaker schools by getting volunteer teachers out of the stronger schools to go and help them. The committee had started Weston and re-organized Somerset, but regretted that Rockland was not yet supplied with a school. Mr Foster's plan was highly commended, and several brethren spoke of his energy and perseverance in the good work.

A. D. Foster testified to the good that had been done by the committee in Aylesford, Kingston and surrounding districts.

G. H. Wallace spoke hopefully of the work in Wolfville and neighborhood.

The report was adopted, and a vote of thanks was tendered to the committee by the Convention.

It was also moved and seconded that a vote of thanks from this Convention be tendered to the retiring President, F. W. Chipman, by the Secretary.
