NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS

ST. STEPHEN is to have a new volunteer rifle company.

ECLIPSE.—On Monday, 29th inst. there will be a total eclipse of the sun.

A Lepreaux school teacher named Henifer, was recently fined for cruelly beating a pupil.

PRINCE WARD.—A double crossing is very much needed from the corner of Union and Carmarthen streets to Brussels street.

ESCAPED.—A lad named Thompson escaped from the Penitentiary Monday, and has not since been captured.

THERE will be a meeting of the Teachers Institute in the Normal School Building, Fredericton, on the 13th, 14th and 15th of August.

PAY UP.—There is a large number of subscribers who have not paid their subscriptions for the HERALD. We hope they will do so at once.

BADLY BEATEN.—A stone cutter named Hughes, was severely pummelled by a disorderly crowd on Charlotte street, Saturday night.

ENTERTAINMENT.—A local Troupe—Home Circle Minstrels, gave a very enjoyable entertainment in the City Hall, Carleton, Monday night.

FIRES.—On Tuesday night, a house a short distance from St. Andrews, owned by Dr. Tupper, and occupied by a Mr. Guptill, was destroyed.

A PRIZE FIGHT.—On Saturday last a prize fight on Navy Island, between Sinclair the oarsman, and a Carletonian, resulted in a victory for the former.

THE new paper, Woodstock Press, was received last week. It is well got up and promises to be a lively country newspaper. Fletcher Bros. are the proprietors.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A little child named Michaud, belonging to Grand Falls, was recently burned to death by its clothes catching fire from some burning matches.

THE Indian, Bernard, who committed the outrage at Hillsboro a short time since, and who for a long time dodged the officers of the law, was arrested at DeBert, Thursday.

DEAD INFANT.—The dead body of an infant enclosed in a box, was found in front of Mr. Roberts' store, Winter street, Portland, by officer McDonald, Wednesday morning.

THE Westmoreland Circuit Court opened at Dorchester, Tuesday. A true bill was found against the Osbornes for the murder of Timothy McCarthy. They were placed on trial, Thursday.

CHEESE THIEVES.—Alex. Gillespie and John McKenna stole a pound of cheese from B. McCrossin's store, Sydney street, on Thursday, and poked fun at the proprietor. They were placed under arrest and were subsequently discharged.

THE PHONOGRAPH, or talking machine, is still on exhibition in the Y. M. Christian Association building, Charlotte street. It is said to be a wonderful invention by those who have heard it.

DROWNED.—By the upsetting of a sail boat in Courtenay Bay, Monday, a man named Graham was drowned. His companions were much exhausted when rescued Graham's body was found same evening when the tide went out.

MR. J. C. CAVANAUGH, Custom Boot and Shoe maker, opened a new place of business a short time since on Main street, Portland. He manufactures goods of the best quality and guarantees a perfect fit in every case. Mr. Cavanaugh ought to be well patronized. See his advt.

PARDONED.—Haddock, convicted of uttering a forged draft on the Bank of B. N. America of this city, and sentenced to 21 years imprisonment in the P. P., has been set free. Since been sentenced he has spent most of the time in the Hospital in consequence of a sore leg which is said to be incurable.

THE DUFFERIN LIVERY STABLES.—If any of our friends are in want of a nice turn out for an afternoon or evening, Mr. Ryan, proprietor of the above named stables, can accommodate them with as good a one as can be had in the city, and at a reasonable price. See advertisement.

NUISANCE.—Underneath an old dilapidated building a short distance east of St. Luke's Church, Portland, is a slimy, stagnant pool the odor from which especially during hot days is particularly offensive. Unless this nuisance is covered up or some means taken to abate it by the Portland authorities, the public health will be endangered. Let it be attended to at once.

AMUSEMENT.—On Monday evening Viola Clifton's Lady Minstrels and Louise Montague's Burlesque Opera Troupe from the Howard Athenæum, Boston, under the management of Mr. John E. Healey, will commence a season at Dockrill's Opera House. Mr. Healey has taken much pains in his selection of artists to provide the citizens with a series of first class entertainments.

MR. R. MCCOLLIGAN, Fort Howe, will shortly start a new paint shop on Portland Bridge. Mr. McColligan has recently superintended the frescoing, painting, gilding, etc, of Mr. P. McGoldrick's residence, Fort Howe. This work is pronounced very fine and it is doubtful if the interior of any building in the city or suburbs in finished in such an artistic manner. It is, we believe, Mr. McColligan's intention to go more largely into the business and as he has already shown considerable energy it will not be a matter of wonder if he proves himself a success in his line of business.

PICNICS.—The Catholics of Black Brook, Miramichi, held a very successful Pic-nic, Tuesday, on the grounds adjacent to the new chapel.

REV. Father Chapman, Johnville, intends to have a pic-nic, the proceeds to be devoted to building the new church at that place. The church is now framed and partly boarded in. The pic-nic will take place about August 13th and Father Chapman will be gratified we hope to see large numbers from St. John, Fredericton, Woodstock, and other places attend it.

Victoria Section, Sons of Temperance, holds a pic-nic at Clifton July 31st.

The Pic-nic of the Catholic Congregation of Carleton will be held on McCarthy's grounds, Bay Shore, Aug. 20th.

H. H. BOWIE the contractor who admin istrated a severe beating to Constable Hancock on Jeffery's hill a week or two ago and afterwards made his escape to the country whither he was pursued but eluded his would-be captors, has, at latest accounts, turned up at Bangor, Me.

M. P. DONOVAN has secured a work-shop in Connors' Factory, City Road, where he will be prepared to attend to all orders with which he may be favored in the Cabinet Making and Undertaking line. We recommend our readers to extend a share of their patronage to Mr. Donovan who is an excellent workman and who will undoubtedly give satisfaction to those who require his services.

CONCERT.—A large audience was present in St. Malachi's Hall, Tuesday evening, at the concert given by the Children of Mary of St. Vincent Convent. It was very successful, financially and otherwise. The piano playing of the Misses. A. Coholan, Bowes, Ritchie and Donohue, was much admired. The duetts between Miss Alice and Nellie Coholan were very well rendered, Miss Nellie showed to considerable advantage later by singing "Starlight Nell." The recitations of Miss McElhinney and Miss Gallagher, were well delivered. The solos of Miss Sullivan and Miss Green, and the appearance with Miss Coholan in trio were well received by the audience. Of course the greatest attraction of the evening was the singing of Miss Mary Coholan, who sung in her usual excellent style. In nearly every case the performer had to respond to encores. A drama entitled "Josephine," was well played by the following young ladies,—Miss Julia Lawlor, Miss Maggie Cody, Miss Katie Corkery, Miss Mary Everett, Miss Mary Maher and Miss Clara Sullivan.

ROWS.—On Thursday afternoon an intoxicated man in Anderson's bar room, King Square, was set on by a sober man and badly beaten. Shortly afterward Anderson thinking that the man hadn't got enough beating, entered the lists and commenced to pummel the poor unfortunate. A crowd collected, a policeman arrived and the beaten man with blood freely flowing, was marched off to the station. Later in the evening another row occurred on Brussels street between two young men. During the melee a young man named Reed received a severe blow in the face. At the close of the proceedings two of the rioters, Geo. Stack and Frank Sullivan were arrested.

TEMPERANCE.—The Holy Trinity T. A. Society, Bathurst, has elected the following officers for the ensuing six months:—

Rev. Father Varrily, Spiritual director;
Francis J. McManus, President;
Lamain R. Doucett, 1st Vice-President;
James J. L. Melanson, 2nd do.;
Francis Meahan, Rec. Sec.;
James J. Melanson, jr., Fin. Sec.;
Peter P. Hachey, Assistant do.;
Samuel J. Melanson, Treasurer;
Henry A. Doucet, Librarian;
Hugh Meahan, Assistant do.;
Henry Burk, Conductor;

DIRECTORS.—Patrick Flannery, Romain Melanson, Alex. M. Doucett, William J. Melanson, William Creamer, and Xavier D. Doucett.

ACCIDENTS.—A daughter of Rev. Mr. Hogg, Moncton, broke one of its arms by falling off a chair, Monday. A ten year old daughter of Geo. Kilnap, was run over by a carriage, Tuesday afternoon, and severely hurt. A locomotive wheel fell on Mr. Wm. Willis' foot in the I. C. R. shop, Moncton, Tuesday, badly crushing it. A son of Mr. Michael Moran, Fredericton, was fooling with a loaded revolver, Tuesday, when it went off badly injuring his hand. Wednesday afternoon, George Phinney, belonging to Bangor, Me., while turning a team at the corner of King and Germain streets, fell under the wheels and had his right thigh broken. Conveyed to the Hospital.

A CHURCH ROBBER.—During the past year the St. Dunstan's Cathedral has been entered many times and candlesticks, lamps, cloths and various articles taken therefrom. The surroundings of the Cathedral were watched, but no trace of the thief could be found. Yesterday evening two young ladies entered the Cathedral about dusk and found a suspicious looking individual in the sanctuary rolling up one of the white altar cloths. They quickly informed the sexton of the matter. He went immediately into the church and found a man named Francis McAdam in the sacristy. On the entrance of the sexton McAdam asked for Father Bodreault. The sexton told him the reverend gentleman was in the Palace, and he left the sacristy to go thither. A gentleman named Timothy Buckley, who accompanied the sexton to the Church, suspecting something, followed McAdam to the door. As he passed out a white cloth was seen to slip from under his coat. Seeing this Mr. Buckley immediately detained him in the porch and held him until the arrival of the police. He was tried before the Quiscumary Magistrates this forenoon and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor. McAdam had a very bad character and is a man over whom the police always require to keep a strict watch. —Charlottetown Ex.

AQUATIC.—Daul. Logan of the Straight Shore, and Ed. Smith of Grand Bay, are to row over four mile course, at the latter place, Monday July 29th.

On Thursday next between the hours of 3 and 6 P. M., if every thing goes right, the question, which is the better oarsman, Ross or Hanlan, will be decided. Very little if any betting has yet been done but the next two or three days will no doubt witness a change in this respect. Already there are odds of 3 to 1 on Hanlan, and the Ross men are still holding back for greater. While pulling over the course on Saturday, Hanlan broke his boat. A like accident occurred on Sunday. A new boat in which the coming race will be pulled, has been sent down from Toronto. The reports that he is dissatisfied with the course, is not in good rowing trim, will never row a race on the Kennebecasis after this race, and all that sort of thing, will, if started for the purpose of making people bet their money, not have the effect intended, but we hope a contrary one. Ross' friends are prepared to hear of their man giving a good account of himself even if he does not win. Part of the week the Kennebecasis course has been so rough that the oarsmen were prevented from taking their usual daily "spins." Both men so far, are in excellent health and spirits and a grand sculling match is expected to take place. Steamers will leave Indiantown for the scene crowded with people and thousands will go out by train.

SHE KNEW HER BUSINESS.—When Collins went home to dinner Monday he found the house tenantless, the cook stove cold, and there was a lonesome look around that part of the Monday washing still left in the tubs in the summer kitchen. Hurrying through to the back yard, he saw his wife braced against the fence, holding to the end of a broken close-line to keep the newly washed garments from the ground.

"You've got here a tlast have you?" exclaimed the wife, as she caugh at sight of him.

"Yes, I'm here—what's the matter?" he repeated.

"Here I've been holding this broken line for over an hour—over a full hour, sir!" she snapped. "I was determained to die right here before I'd let these clothes down!"

"But why didn't you call some one?" innocently inquired. "There is that new family next door—the woman would have come over in one minute."

"Woman next door, you big idiot you! Hasn't she been pecking and peeking around for two weeks for to see my wash, and d'ye think I'd give her a chance to come over here and see for herself whether the sleeves of my night-gown were pieced down with unbleached cotton! You dont know anything, sir, and you make tracks for a piece of rope, sir!"

"Well, I swan!" growled Collins, as he "tracked."

When an editor carefully contemplates his subscription book and views the vast number of delinquent sub scribers enrolled thereon, he buries his face in his hands, heaves a sigh that sounds like the soughing of the wind among the pine trees on the mountain side, and wishes he were in heaven and had the money for his clothes.
