CHURCH OPENING On Quamichan Reserve Was Celebrated

So far as heard from there will be on Saturday and Sunday. The opening of the new Methodist church on the Quamichan reserve was celebrated on Saturday and Sunday last. Rev. Thos. Crosby, the pioneer missionary of this province, was present and preached at each service. There was a large attendance, and especially at the Sunday afternoon meeting, when upwards of 200 Indians were Great enthusiasm was displayed by the Indians during the services. They are justly proud of their church, and well they may be, as the building is up-to-date in every respect. The exterior, as well as interior, has been painted, and the work throughout reflects much credit on the pastor, Rev. C. M. Tate, who not only superintended the work but assisted peronally during the construction of the edifice. The erection of the church fills long felt want by the Indians, as it is the intention of Mr. Tate to open a daily school for the benefit of the Indian children of that neighborhood, where they can obtain, not only an education, proper training, which could not be obtained in that district heretofore.

Do You Hiccough? Pretty disagreeable complaint, isn't it? Why don't you take a few drops Nerviline occasionally and get cured-it ever fails. Polson's Nerviline perfect treasure for folks bothered with hiccoughs and stomach gas. Nothing better is made than Nerviline; get a 25c.
