Favor Laurier

Will Boom Business at Boston and Portland.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.-Notwithstanding the fact that there is an election campaign on in the United States,

New England is considerably interest ed in the fight for its life the Canadian government is making. The business interests of Boston, which maintain that this city is one of the na-favor the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as they believe that the city would not fare as well, through any trade arrangements of tariff changes, under the conservative party. The which is constantly advocating the annexation of Canada to the United States, may prove to be one of Laurier's ofol friends, for in a recent is sue it expressed the hope that the premier would be returned to power, as he inclines towards the independence of Canada. "And once Canada is independent," exclaimed Laurier's Boston supporter, "annexation will be which recently startled Canadian Grand Trunk liberals by gravely announcing that the construction of the new trans-continental system meant a gain to Portland rather than to cord, whose motto at the top of its editorial page is, "The annexation of Canada," words which stand out as a brazen insult to all Canadians here, is also praying for the success of the

The city of Portland, which is also vitally interested in the Canadian elections, will declare for Laurier by acclamation as the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific would further build up that Grand Trunk outlet on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's press agent.

one E. W. Thompson, is supplying the Boston Transcript, usually a fair-minded newspaper, with a mess of ridiculous gush concerning Canadian political affairs. Former Canadians here have become so thoroughly acquainted they accept about one-sixteenth of one

OLD FASHIONED EVICTION

Mob in Ireland Assail Police With

Red Hot Irons and Boiling Water.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—At Fellshort, hear Cork, an attempt today to evict unpaid rent of six years, led to seri-assisted Murphy, assailing the police

With the arrival of reinforcements the police charged the mob with fixed bayonets and many on both sides were injured. Late in the evening, through the mediation of the parish priest, conflict continued all days.

cept of what he mails to Bosto Moneton.

liberal party.

the Atlantic.

This is the newspaper

The Boston Evening Re-outlets for Canadian traffic.

EWS.

ched his inree Baptist large congreron Winslow oved today. nity received d along the sheriff, howo some exrmerly all Gibson, but town and was made rate polling he new contain the s not pleasthat thriving t an irregu still further ne elections impton died conservaformerly of minated a except Yarorts from all ere seems to rden will be of the mem-ing the drill

YORK GOUNTY CONSERVATIVES Boston and New England

Prepared to Put Up a Stiff Fight. Is That They Expect the G. T. P.

> The Young Men of the County Strong for R. L. Borden — Gibson's > > Position a Difficult One.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 12.-The splendid and enthusiastic convention held by the liberal conservatives here yesterday has thrown the liberal party, so called, into a kind of semi-lunation state. The opportunists are dumbfounded, and judging from expressions published in their chief organ tonight, the order has been given to start the campaign of personal abuse. When such an order has gone forth it looks as if someone was very much disturb-Boston Daily Advertiser, a paper i ed. The conservative party in York

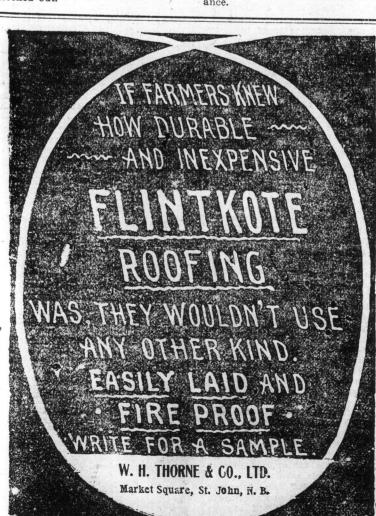

O. S. CROCKETT. with this Ottawa penny-a-liner that The Conservative Candidate in York as the truth, and even in so doing they recognize that they are dallying with are quite naturally pleased with affairs as they exist at the present time, and as they exist at the present time, and its members, though they are not saying much or going about abusing their oppnents, are showing that state of confidence which on more than one occasion has brought about victory. The ment. conservatives feel that they have J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., on rising to of Mr. Borden. port of the young men of York. This s most noticeable everywhere and their enthusiasm and determination means much in a political battle. The people of York will ask Mr. Gibson tenant named Edmund Murphy for from now on why it is that if he is in favor of the St. John Valley Railway ous fighting. Fifty police, arriving ment to bring the railway, as Mr. Gibhe voted against Mr. Fowler's amendearly in the morning, found the place son now professes to so wish. Other barricaded. A crowd assembled and people are asking if Mr. Gibson is so with red-hot irons, boiling water and ney has set it forth that Mr. Gibson is drill hall to remain as it is. Mr. Phinstones, compelling them to desist. The a worker. It is now up to Mr. Phin-

COSTIGAN NOMINATED.

Murphy was induced to surrender. Al- Costigan was nominated by the libtogether thirty arrests were made. One eral convention. No other name was policeman had all of his front teeth submitted. There was a good attend-

DANIEL AND STOCKTON FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY.

ST. JOHN SEMI-WEEKLY SUN

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1904.

Chosen Thursday as the Conservative Standard Bearers at a Largely Attended and Very Enthusiastic Convention.

party Thursday in the York Theatre. ridings of St. John city and the city ceived by Dr. Daniel would be a large asm. Dr. J. W. Daniel, who won such city, and build up Portland at the exagainst overwhelming odds, was again the unanimous choice of his party, had any other man now in political feated, was no reason why he should in ringing speeches both accepted nomstitutes had taken the places of seve placed in nomination had been made circumstances attending Mr. Hazen's fied the audience with his eloquence "No," said Dr. Stockton, "there was campaign of abuse and ridicule, the felt that it was emphatically a call of eral conservative party, and he had ences on behalf of the government had by the country. Therefore they must support the candidates. (Applause.)

prevented the realization of the ex- be responsible for the early frosts, the pectations of the opposition, yet the potato blight and the increase in the strength of his party in the house had price of flour. One was as fallacious been materially increased. In order to as the other. McKeown also stated preserve the standing of the opposition that the G. T. P. would only cost $13,and to continue the efforts which they 000,000, but Blair estimated the cost of were putting forth for good govern- the eastern section alone at $65,000,000. ment, an understanding had been entered into between himself and his col- Mr. Kelly's oration in a few lines, but The speaker touched upon the recifederal politics as candidates at this plause with which he was greeted servative party was on record as favthat Mr. Loggie, M. P. P., would not was appreciated. be a candidate in Northumberland. It John E. Wilson was called for by the M. P. P., might be nominated on Friday evening for that constituency, and GRAND FALLS, Oct. 12.—Hon. John some of his friends had urged that he should take time for consideration until Saturday, and in the event of Mr. Morrisey being nominated, that he, also, should accept nomination. He felt that he could not, in honor, accede to this suggestion. He had no knowledge that Mr. Morrisey would accept a nomination, but should that gentleman do so, that would not, he felt, absolve htm from his own personal pledge to his regretted very deeply that he would unable to accept the nomination be pleased to again represent the constituency of St. John in the dominion many of the delegates were doubtless be successful. (Great applause). disappointed, the convention as a body nomination of Dr. A. A. Stockton was the audience wildly cheering. made amid the greatest enthusiasm. which had gathered in the assembly followed by great applause.

party in this county that they had his address.

There was a ring of victory about the who would be the candidate for the study of the law relating to charters. proceedings of the liberal conservative city of St. John. (Applause.) He had He suspected that "something was up." been a representative of whom any He was proud to accept the nominaconstituency might be proud. (Hear, tion so unanimously tendered him. The object of the convention was the hear.) He had no doubt that on the When he looked about and saw the selection of candidates to contest the third of November the majority re- magnificent body of delegates which and county at the coming elections to one. Many independent liberals would the prospect of the encounter, which be held on November third. There undoubtedly follow the example of takes place in three weeks. (Applause.) probably was never held in the city James F. Robertson, and vote to pre- He considered it a great honor to be of St. John a more enthusiastic meet- vent the perpetration of that great the candidate of the great party which ing. It was no ordinary meeting, and outrage, the Grand Trunk Pacific, had chosen him as its standard-bearer. there was justification for the enthusi- which would bring disaster to our He thought that his election of 1900 a magnificent victory last February pense of St. John. (Great applause.) would have been his desire, but his Dr. Stockton, the candidate for the private inclinations must give way city and county, had been elected when the call came to do battle for while Dr. A. A. Stockton, the hero of here more times than any other man great principles, and with the assistmany hard fought battles, and who, in the city. He was an able parlia- ance of those present he was confident as Mr. Hazen stated, had been elected mentarian and a good constitutional taht he would carry the banner to vicmore times in the city of St. John than lawyer. Because a man had been de- tory. (Great applause.) life here, was called upon to carry the not again seek the suffrages of the elections ever held in this country.

standard of the party to victory in the people. (Applause.) Every public man (Hear, hear.) When the vacancy occity and county. Both nominations of any experience in this country has were unanimous and made amid the suffered defeat. Mr. Blair had been thought it would not be advisable to greatest enthusiasm. There was no beaten three times in his native prov- fight. This view was held by our opballoting and no contention. The men ince. Mr. Hazen said that Dr. Stock- ponents, but in politics he had always selected were the men wanted, and ton had not sought this nomination. Had his own wishes been consulted, opponents do not want you to do ination. There was never any ques- he would have preferred to assist tion as to who should receive the city some other candidate, but he was will- the party was now in much better nomination, as the only name proposed ing at any time to come to the as- shape to fight the present battle. sistance of his party, and Mr. Hazen Dr. Daniel, the victor in that contest, When the delegates retired, on motion said that he was sure he represented and his colleague, in the coming fight, W. H. Thorne took the chair. As sub- the wishes of the party when he said had in the past session greatly distinthat they were very fortunate in being guished himself, and had done honor eral delegates who arrived late, W. D. able to secure a candidate of the ex- to the constituency he represented. Baskin moved that the delegates be perience and platform ability of Dr. (Wild applause.) Dr. Stockton read added to the roll of the convention, and gentlemen would permit their names to ton. (Great applause.) Before taking nental railway. This paper stated no very distant period in building the and control of this railway. his seat Mr. Hazen called upon the aware of a strong desire on the part orator of St. Martins, Michael Kelly, getting the government to construct of many people that J. D. Hazen who got a great rectption, and well he the railway as their own enterprise should allow his name to go before the deserved it, as his speech would do than to have one built to the recently convention. As there were peculiar credit to any man. He fairly electridiscovered planet.

(Applause). Justice cannot be done to desire by making a few remarks. J. B. M. Baxter was suffering from a bad throat, but the audience would not let him off. The members of the liberal party also had something sticking in their throats and also in their ribs. The speech of Mr. Hazen in the convention breathed the true spirit of the liberal conservative party. (Apfellow members of the opposition. He proud, and the candidates selected tonight would be worthy representatives and able assistants of our honored here if the party should think proper leader. (Applause). We must work to offer it to him, as he would indeed and roll up a great majority for our candidates on the third of November. (Great applause).

parliament, and have again at his back Miles E. Agar was also called upon, those electors who had so loyally stood and expressed his pleasure that such by him on previous accosions. But he a large and representative gathering felt where his word was involved that was present. The great audience pretake as an honorable man. (Ap- people had in this election. (Applause). Many of them had come a long dis-The statement of Mr. Hazen was re- tance to be present, and he wanted no ceived with great applause, and though better evidence that the party would

At this juncture the candidates made showed their appreciation of his posi- their appearance, and they came in a tion, and his name was not presented, rather original manner. As soon as The other names proposed were Dr. they were inside the door, one party of A. A. Stockton, Geo. V. McInerney, W. enthusiastic stalwarts seized Dr. Frank Hatheway and W. H. Thorne. Daniel and carried him to the plat-The three last mentioned asked that form on their shoulders, and Dr. Stock- it impossible for him to proceed for their names be withdrawn, and the ton reached there in the same manner,

Ald. Macrae moved that the nomiconvention, and when they were sent be ratified by the meeting. This was room, was roused to an intense pitch Dr. Stockton was the first speaker, confronted him, he felt encouraged at would probably be his last, and such

This was one of the most important curred in the city last year, many found it wise to do exactly what your (Applause.) As a result of that fight that there was no more chance of for that gentleman to make a state- pointed out the evils of the liberal ad- the majority." Place Mr. Borden in ministration, and extolled the policy power, however, and that which Col. pretty well organized their forces in speak was heartily cheered. He said Mr. Kelly thought that the reception would come to pass. (Applause.) Mr. all the parishes, and while the liberals that when he had been called upon to he got indicated that the audience was Borden had pledged himself to exproand their organs may carry on the take up the work of local politics he in thorough accord with the great lib- priate and have the line constructed and owned by the government. (Apduty, and as such he had cheerfully no doubt that on Nov. 3rd the grits plause.) At the liberal convention the in proceeding in the even tenor of its obeyed it. When the call to the leader- would be put completely out of busi- other night candidates were tumbling way. It is safe to say that Mr. Borden ship came to him he had taken up ness. (Applause). Last night at St. over themselves to secure the position. those duties and performed them to the Martins Mr. McKeown had claimed for Dr. Pugsley bobbed up serenely, as he best of his ability, and after the electhe government of the day all the usually does, and notwithstanding the tion of 1903, though the heavy influ- credit for the great prosperity enjoyed injuries he had received, he would Mr. McKeown stated that Dr. Pugsthe battle, and it was generally understood that he would be the generalissome of the forces which would assail the "mighty men of valor" on the conservative side.

leagues that none of them should enter when he resumed his seat the wild ap- procity question, and said that the conelection. He had positive assurance must have shown him how greatly it oring a real reciprocity, in which Canada would receive as well as give. (Applause). He quoted a resolution had been suggested that Mr. Morrisey, audience, and he acquesced in their passed at the republican state convention in favor of the same, and also approved of the statements of Mr. Moody and President Roosevelt, who expressed themselves as anxious to enter up, and after the mover, Dr. Daniel into negotiations with Canada with a and others had spoken in fayor of it, fair reciprocity treaty in view.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson was announced to speak here soon. He would like him to answer why the government allowplause). The record of the conserva- ed the G. T. R. to secure the Canada resolution the reply was made that tive party was good, and they had a Atlantic railway, which would prevent nothing could now be done as the bodleader of whom they might well be a bushel of grain coming to St. John by the I. C. R. (Hear, hear). He would also like the minister of railways plause.) John a share of the western grain.

of St. John. (Wild applause). On re- plause.) suming his seat Dr. Stockton received Dr. Daniel said that he would deal canadian market. Mr. Powell next an ovation equalling in volume and very fully with the transportation dealt with the railway policy, showing enthusiasm that which greeted his ap- question on other occasions. He made the unwisdom of the government's plan pearance as a candidate.

Dr. Daniel then rose to speak amid cheers and applause, which rendered several minutes. He accepted the nomhearty manner that it was offered. The The candidates were not present at nation of Dr. Daniel and Dr. Stockton last time he had accepted with diffidence, as it was a great responsibility. for, and apprised of the selection of seconded by several hundred people at This time he had entire confidence that the convention, the large audience once, and was carried unanimously, he would be elected by an even increased plurality of votes. (Applause.) He had learned many lessons of enthusiasm by a number of able and and as he rose the cheering and ap- at Ottawa, one of the first being that plause, which had never ceased, in things were not always what they Mr. Hazen, who was the first speaker, creased in volume, and it was some seem. (Applause.) He instanced the congratulated the liberal conservative minutes before he could proceed with resolution which was placed on the order paper by Logan of Cumberland. such a candidate as Dr. Daniel. Since Dr. Stockton commenced his speech to the effect that the preference exthe great victory achieved by that by remarking that he had been in court tended to British goods should only gentleman against odds which would for the past day or two, and when he apply to such goods as came to Canahave daunted one less courageous, received word that his presence was dian ports over Canadian soil. This there had never been any doubt as to desired here he was engaged in the had been allowed to stand until after not ask your druggist about it?

JAMES F. ROBERTSON LEAVES THE LIBERALS.

He Favors Government Ownership and is Opposed to the G. T. P. and So Must Support of Manchester, Robertson & Allison. "Much as I regret having to separate from the party with which I have been associated so long, I feel that policy?" there is no other course open to me. There is one great question before the people. That is the Grand Trunk Pacific project. On that issue I have strong and decided convictions, and have given expression to them in the esolutions unanimously adopted on of the public. "We want transportation three occasions by the St. John board of trade. The government policy is directly opposed to what I regard as sound policy. On the other hand the liberal conservatives in the house and the leader of the party have adopted the policy which I have advocated. they are entitled to my support.' That is the frank and clear statement which Mr. Robertson made of his position in an interview with the Sun yesterday. It is exactly what might have expected of any independent and consistent business man, in view of the part he has taken in the board of trade on this question.

Mr. Borden.

In January, 1903, Mr. Robertson moved his memorable resolution setting forth "that the best inresolution of Canada would onserved by the building of a government owned and managed transcontinental line," and declaring that the board of trade places itself on record as favoring extension of the Inercolonial from Montreal across the entinent through Canadian territory, aprovement of harbor facilirticularly on the Gulf of St. Lawre ce and on the maritime pro-

Robertson moved and Mr. D. J. Mc-Laughlin seconded a resolution, which This resolution also declared that "no grants either of money or lands should be made by the dominion to any new transcontinental line."

One month later, after the trans-

Canada delegation had been heard, Mr.

position he thought it would be well and well rounded periods in which he not, because the liberal party was in had been brought down, Mr. Robertson again returned to the question and the Board once more affirmed his proposition with one dissenting vote given by Mr. Likely, who said that he was preferred another motion.

ernment," he said. "If any railway can afford to handle the volume of traffic stockholders the people of Canada can afford to do the same business on the ley would be put in the forefront of same terms." "If ever there was a It was a great national issue. time when Canada was in a position to build a government railway across the continent it is now." "When the minister, from whom we have asked so much and received so much, thought it right to throw up his position in the government we should endorse his ac-

> Referring to these statements and others equally strong the Sun asked Mr. Robertson if he had since modithe budget speech, when it was taken was unanimously passed. That had no effect, however, and when Mr. Borden asked the premier to give effect to the to state whether he knew within 50 Referring to the local situation, Dr. miles what route the G. T. P. would Daniel said the party now had a splentake in this province. (Applause). The did organization, and if the same vigor ing and evidently created a deep imspeaker showed that the clause relat- and energy were manifested on this ing to "unrouted freight" would be of occasion as before, and he was confident no value whatever in securing for St. that it would, there was no doubt as that under the existing tariff policy to the result. (Great applause.) The In closing Dr. Stockton said that he people were with us, and if the people States had enormously increased, and would deal more fully with the trans- were with the party there need be no many millions were sent out of the there was but one course for him to sent indicated the intense interest the portation question in the course of the fear. (Hear, hear.) The Grand Trunk campaign, and said that the enemy Pacific was an iniquitous scheme, and should be made in Canada and giving should be kept to this question. A vote would destroy and nullify the great employment to our own people instead for O'Brien and McKeown meant a expenditure that had been made by the of sending them across the line to blow to the best interests of the port city for elevators and wharves. (Ap- work in factories, engaged in many decreased representation of the mari- serious injury to the Intercolonial. time provinces. We would never have the same influence again, as the west throughout the meeting was loudly was filling up so rapidly that they applauded and Mr. Powell had an enwould be constantly adding to their this scheme the knock-out blow now motto that took with the crowd was, ed applause.)

estic liberal conservative meetings that the great aim of his life was to ever held in the city of St. John was go to Ottawa to hold Blair's hands in brought to a close with three cheers extending the Intercolonial. for the King and the candidates.

PEOPLE envy the strong and robust. Miss Amy Gordon, daughter of the late We are told that "The D & I/" Emul-sion builds up sold flesh and that it McLeod and Mrs. Geo. F. Smith of St.

The liberal party in this province | "Not in the least," said Mr. Robertwill in this election miss the support son. "On the contrary, I am more of Mr. Jas. F. Robertson of the firm firmly convinced that the policy affirmson. "On the contrary, I am more ed by the St. John business men was

"Then you oppose the government "Certainly I do." Mr. Robertson does not see how any one can approve of handing over this great' proposed railway to a corporation, which would probably form a combination with others to the injury at the lowest price and only public control can secure it." "Let us have a King's highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, giving the people a service on fair and equal terms. Let it be free from the control of syndicates and speculators. Let it be a people's railway, owned by them,

That is what Mr. Robertson pleaded for last year. It is what he still de-

He spoke of local men who are disributing goods all over Canada from the maritime provinces. He would give them the best possible chance. The United States have already toe much control of our industries. should not allow them to get control of our traffic too. Mr. Robertson still proclaims this doctrine. Mr. Robertson says that though he is a St. John man, he considers that other parts of Canada are equally interested. "The policy of government ownership would be in the interest of Halifax and of all the maritime provinces. It would protect the west from foreign control and ensure the settlers there of the cheap transportation of their products to the seaboard."

"We have a liberal party and a liberal conservative party. Why not have conservative liberals? I accept added to the roll of the convention, and success, and ne expected min to be elected by a large majority. He urged this was adopted.

Mr. Thorne briefly reported that a committee which had been appointed by the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the executive to ascertain what the success of Drs. Daniel and Stockby the success of Drs. Dani liberal doctrine as defined in the dic-not need to be so-liberal as to giv everything away." Asked for his opinion on the subject of Canadian ports, Mr. Robertson said that he endorsed the national port programme. He believed that contract with the Grand Trunk Pacific | the import and export business should be carried on through Canadian channels, and that the harbor facilities should be made adequate. In reply to a straight question Mr. Robertson made the statement given in favor of government ownership, but at the beginning of this article. He said that he could not afford nor had In these three discussions Mr. Robertson gave strong reasons. "If it would pay the Grand Trunk Pacific to icy of the government. The railway build the road it would pay the gov- policy which he thought the proper one was the policy of the conservative party. They were together on this which has been delivered to foreign issue, the one great question before the people. This was a question beyond and above mere party questions.

> It is an interesting fact which Mr. Robertson has probably forgotten that the name of his firm heads the long list of signatures to the requisition asking Mr. Blair to become a candidate in St. John in 1900.

It is for the reasons given above and on no personal or ordinary party grounds that Mr. James F. Robertson will on the third of November mark his ballot for the opposition candidates in St. John.

A BIG MEETING AT MONCTON.

MONCTON. Oct. 13 .- Notwithstanding a heavy downpour of rain all afternoon and evening, the Opera House was crowded to the doors to hear the liberal conservative policy expounded. E. A. Reilly, barrister, presided, and a number of prominent citizens had seats get speech had been delivered. (Ap- on the platform. Senator Wood was the first speaker, dealing with the government's transcontinental railway policy from a business man's point of view. He was clear and most convincpression. Mr. Powell followed. He first took up the fiscal question, showing Canada's imports from the United country every year for goods that cases in the making of goods for the Dr. Daniel said that he would deal Canadian market. Mr. Powell next an original point in referring to the and the certainty that it would work Every mention of Mr. Borden's name thusiastic reception. The hall was demembers. We must, therefore, give corated with suitable mottoes. The or never. (Tremendous and prolong- "Vote for Powell and hold up Blair's hands," the reference being to Em-After this one of the most enthusi- merson's remarks at the last election

The sad news came from Pictou, N. S., yesterday of the sudden death of