How beautiful is day.
O'er the laughing earth and sen.
When it startless sleep away.
And it wake to fly to thee:
When the dawn-tinte, dim and cold.
Change to purple and to gold.
And a repture all untold
Lights the path for love and me.
When I see its radiance play
O'er they gentle lip and brow—
Oh, how beautiful is day!
And how beautiful art thou:

How beautiful is noon.
When I meet thee in the shade
Of the leafy woods of June.
Like a spirit of the glado!
When the winds breaths soft and low.
To the brocklet's stilly flow.
And all nature seems to know
Thou art listening, dearest maid!
When I near the mumor'd time
Of thy sweet voice, sweet as now—
Of, how beautiful is noon!
And how beautiful art thou!

And how beautiful art who.

How beautiful is eve.

When its golden smiles depart

Slow away, as leath to leave
Aught so lovely as thou art:
Then the dewe begin to weep,
And the first pule star to peep,
Like an angel sent to keep

Vigits o'er then when we part!

When the twilight seems to grieve,
As it dies upon thy brow—

Oh, how beautiful is eve,
And how beautiful art thou!

And now beautiful it night.
O'er the dreaming earth and sea.
When the moon, in virgin white.
Wanders modestly, like thee!
When her beame, in silver flight,
Deepen mere, with tender light,
All the magic and the might
Of thy beauty, love, to me!
When her starry eyes are bright.
Like thine own, my dearest, now
Oh, how beautiful is night!
And how beautiful art thou!

connection, suitable for a GENERAL CLOTH-ING STORE.

And, as heretofore, having made up in the concern a great part of Rie Cloths into Fasikinnobl-spring and Summer CLOTHING of the latest styles he is now prepared with his large stock of Ready made Garments of every fabric, style and finish, for the farmer or labouring man, the gentleman of fashion or mechanic, the seafaring man, and all others; which will be hereafter profered for sale to the public at lower prices than ever before known. It is slimest timeressary to point out to a discerning public the vast benefit arising to the Province generally by having your Clothing made up in the place. You may safely say that every imported garment you purchase, you are actually sending one fourth of the cost unnecessarily out of the country, not to speak of the great injury you are entailing on a large class of industrious people in your own city. It is high time to look seriously lints this matter, and to tell those people who import own city. It is high time to look seriously those, and those fooly, who always get their Clothing made up in the City, and sell them at a cheaper rate than imported garments can possibly be obtained; and that those Goods you will now find at the CITY CLOTHING STORE. material and warranted.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Polmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemis, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Remedy.

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful maidy, and now introduced, to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every whete alike Astonishing Abs. Trausprilant.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendences of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate cough, Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is untervaled. But the Proprietoris so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms for consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflict ed with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligenes and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounce ed an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is the seal of consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadfol scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other medicines date not claim for their preparations a power like this: they know that it in ocase have such effects been produced:—the great and only remedy for incipient consumption—on the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is alway

There is certainly some mysterious and occuse virtue in the famous. "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent menopuly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to be public.
