FALL SHOES

The changing atmosphere will soon demand the putting aside of light Summer Shoes and demand something more in keeping with the season. Our Fall Stock of Men's and Women's New Shoes were early on the shelves this season, and that they are popular with our customers is evidenced by the big trade done lately. The most popular styles for both men and women is a narrow toe with a very low heel for men and a fairly high one for women—but then we have all shapes and patterns.

BEST LOCAL TALENT FOR THE CONCERT

Patriotic Entertainment promises to prove great musical treat — Will be held on October 15th.

Arrangements for the holding of a patriotic concert, which, it is expected, will prove one of the greatest musical treats ever given to a St. John audience, were advanced a stage yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Daughters of the Empire in the Imperial Theatre.

The features of this concert, which will be held on the 15th of October, will be the singing of a large chorus, composed of local talent, and the selection of an orchestra of between 30 and 35 pieces. The committee of the Daughters of the Empire hope to get the best talent in the city to take part and will proceed at once with the organization of the chorus and orchestra. The work of rehearsing the chorus and orchestra will be undertaken by Mr. Swanbourne and Stanley Lawton.

The concert will be held under the auspices of the three local chapters of the Daughters of the Empire, and the proceeds will be devoted to the patriotic fund. It is hoped the concert will be well attended and that a considerable sum will be realized. The management of the Imperial Theatre offered the Daughters of the Empire the use of the theatre any night for their concert, and the committee decided on October 15th. Rehearsals will be held in the school room of the Stone church, and it is expected they will begin next Monday.

FELL FROM EIGHTH STORY

To fall from the eighth story of the main building of the Atlantic Sugar Refining Co., Ltd., a distance of between 110 and 120 feet, and live to tell the tale, was the unique experience of Ralph Smith, a painter in the employ of E. G. M. Cape Co. He is now in the hospital with a dislocated elbow, a gash on his lower lip and two broken ribs. He is otherwise apparently uninjured, although internal complications may develop.

Leonard G. Slipp

Special to The Standard.—Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 15.—Leonard G. Slipp, one of the oldest and most respected residents of this county died this evening at his home five miles below town. He was ninety-four years of age and has been ill a long time. He was well known all over the province as a man of high reputation. He was a prominent farmer, a Baptist in religion and a native of Hampstead, Queens county, coming to this county when a young man. He is survived by five children, J. W. Slipp, G. W. Slipp, game warden for this county, I. Edmund and Frank Slipp and one daughter, Mrs. James Slipp of Fort Fairfield. One brother, R. S. Slipp, belongs to Hampstead. A. R. Slipp, M. L. A., Fredericton, is a nephew of deceased.

James McConnell.

The death of James McConnell, of West St. John, occurred yesterday morning at 2.30 o'clock, after a brief illness. He was eighty-five years of age and came here from Tyrone, Ireland, almost seventy years ago and had resided in West St. John ever since. He is survived by two sons, William J. and James, both of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Fletcher, of Boston. He was very well known about the West Side and was respected by all who knew him. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

ENGLAND HAS NOT CHANGED HER ATTITUDE OVER GERMANS

London, Sept. 15, 8.45 p. m.—The official press bureau announces that the following statement is issued with the authority of Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with regard to the communication made by Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial German Chancellor, to the press:

"Does any one believe," asks the German chancellor, "that England would have interfered to protect Belgian freedom against France? The answer is that she would unquestionably have done so. Sir Edward Grey, as reported in the White Paper, asked the government whether it was prepared to engage to respect the neutrality of Belgium so long as no other power violated it. The French government replied that they were resolved to respect it. The assurance, it was added, had been given several times, and had formed the subject of a conversation between the British and German chancellors, who entirely ignores the fact that England took the same line about Belgian neutrality in 1870 that it has taken now."

"In 1870, Prince Bismarck, when approached by England on the subject, admitted and respected the treaty obligations in relation to Belgium. The British government stands in 1914 as it stood in 1870. It is Herr Von Bethmann-Hollweg's chance, not ours, to make a mistake. The Imperial Chancellor finds it strange that Mr. Asquith in his Gulistan speech did not mention the neutrality of the Scandinavian countries, and suggests that the reason for the omission was some sinister design on England's part."

What England Has Done For the Boer.

"It is impossible for any public speaker to cover the whole ground in each speech. The German chancellor's reference to Denmark and other Scandinavian countries can hardly be considered very tactful with regard to Denmark. The Danes are not men of service, now happily past, who played Prussia and England respectively in 1863 and 1864, when the Kingdom of Denmark was dismembered and the integrity of Norway and Sweden was guaranteed by England and France in the treaty of Stockholm in 1855."

The Imperial Chancellor refers to the desertion of Great Britain with the Boer republic, and suggests that she has been false therein to the cause of freedom. Without going into the details of the Boer war, we may recall what Gen. Botha said in the South African parliament a few days ago, "With regard to the military policy of the British Empire, which we have expressed his criticism of, and explaining the firm resolve of the South African Union to aid in every possible way."

Smith and another painter, whose name is said to be John Mudge, were on a swinging stage suspended by rope from two blocks at the top of the building and were engaged in painting the window sashes on the eighth floor. Without a moment's warning the rope on the end of which Smith was gave way and before he could get his feet on the window sashes he was falling to the ground more than 100 feet below. He fell in a pile of rubbish and old tar paper and although he was stunned he was not unconscious.

London, Sept. 15, 6.15 p. m.—The correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company at Antwerp relates, in a despatch, how a German cavalry force three thousand strong, with machine guns and supply wagons, was surprised on Monday at Roubrugge, between Hoogstrade and Poperinghe, close to the frontier, by a French cavalry force of 1,000 men, who put them to flight and captured many of the machine guns and much ammunition. The Germans were in camp when the French fell upon them and a fierce engagement lasting for two hours ensued. One hundred Germans were captured. The French lost about thirty men, including two officers killed.
