

LATE NEWS AND VIEWS FROM SPORTING WORLD

BASEBALL IN THE BIG LEAGUES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
 New York, 5; Washington, 1.
 New York, Oct. 2.—The New York Americans easily defeated Washington here today in the first game of the final series of the year, 5 to 1. Shawkey held Washington to two hits. The score:
 Washington . . . 0010000—1 2 1
 New York . . . 0101001x—5 11 1
 Batteries: Thomas, Goodwin and Henry, Gharrett; Shawkey and Walters.
 Boston, 4; Philadelphia, 2.
 Boston, Oct. 2.—With the pennant won, the Boston Americans eased up today, but nevertheless defeated Philadelphia, 4 to 2. It was a litters shut-out during the five innings that Ernest Shore pitched for the world champions. He was then relieved by Jones, in pursuance of Manager Carrigan's policy of giving the pitchers whom he will call upon in the world series only enough work to keep them in condition. The score:
 Philadelphia . . . 00000200—2 6 1
 Boston . . . 2010100x—4 11 1
 Batteries: Johnson and Schanz; Shore, Jones and Cady.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
 Brooklyn, 2; New York, 0.
 Brooklyn, Oct. 2.—Jack Coombs pitched shut-out ball today and beat the New Yorks, 2 to 0, and Brooklyn gained half a game on the Philadelphia. In only the first inning was the veteran twirler in danger. Then, with the bases full and two out, he fanned Kauff. A sensational running catch by Cutshaw, with Holke on third in the seventh, with two out, saved a run. Schupp was effective until the fourth, when Daubert scratched a hit to Fletcher, stole second and scored on Wheat's single. The score:
 New York . . . 00000000—0 6 0
 Brooklyn . . . 0010001x—2 7 1
 Batteries: Schupp and Anderson, Rairden; Coombs and Miller.
 Take One Each.
 Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—Philadelphia enjoyed another brief stay in first place in the National League race today, the home team outting Brooklyn from the lead by winning the first game from Boston, 2 to 0, and then dropping back to second place by losing the second contest, 4 to 1. The score:
 Philadelphia . . . 00000000—0 6 0
 Boston . . . 0010001x—2 7 1
 Batteries: Schupp and Anderson, Rairden; Coombs and Miller.

First game—
 Philadelphia . . . 0100100x—2 8 1
 Boston . . . 00000000—0 7 1
 Batteries: Alexander and Killifer; Ragan, Allen and Gowdy.
Second game—
 Boston . . . 100001200—4 11 1
 Philadelphia . . . 01000000—1 6 1
 Batteries: Reubach and Gowdy; Demaree and Killifer.

BOMBARDIER WELLS.
 Although he still fights with his fists occasionally, for the benefit of the war relief funds, Bombardier Wells now does most of his scrapping with a gun. The Bombardier is thirty years old, having been born on the last day of August in 1887. When the war broke out Wells did not immediately offer his services to his country, as he had three brothers wearing the uniform of the British army, and it was up to him to support their families as well as his own. It is said that he volunteered at once, but the recruiting authorities told him to go on boxing and support the four families dependent on him. Wells is an unusually sensitive chap, however, and he couldn't long stand the strain of criticisms pointed at him, and in May, 1915, he enlisted as a private in a Welsh regiment. It isn't the Bombardier's first experience of soldiering, as it was while he was in the army in India that he began boxing. Having won the army heavyweight championship, he bought his release and turned professional.

 Considered as a successor of Broughton, Mendoza, Belcher, Cribb, Spring, Sayers, Mace, and other famous English heavyweight champions of the past, Wells is pretty much of a joke, but as an athlete, a gentleman and a citizen he ranks among the best. Perhaps, this explains why, although often defeated in the ring, he remains an idol of the British boxing fans.
 Eugene Corri, the famous English referee, who has had many opportunities to study the Bombardier in and out of the roped arena, declares that Wells is "the most remarkable character" he has ever met. "It is about as hard to measure Wells," says Corri, "as it is to measure one's own shadow. He is never twice the same."

One day we prophesied great things for him, and were fairly up in the struts upon having discovered a brilliant white hope; the next day we shook our heads, and almost shook our fists at him. The popularity of Wells has been remarkable all along his career, whether winning his fights or losing them. There is a merric something or other about the Bombardier which makes the people like him personally. In America he is as popular as any one of their own men. They have not seen anybody so clever with his hands and on his feet since the days of Corbett, and the Americans are very partial to scientific fighting.

REAL LADY SMASHES TWO WORLD RECORDS

Wins Two Year Old Futurity Lowering World Mark of 2.15 3-4, and Her Own Record of 2.07 1-2 to 2.07 Flat
 Lexington, Ky., Oct. 2.—Two world records were made by the Real Lady in winning the two-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity, the principal event of the opening day of the forty-fourth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association here today. The Murphy entry trotted the first heat in 2:07 1/4, lowering the former mark of 2:15 3/4 for two-year-old fillies held jointly by Native Belle and Volga, and then lowering that mark in the second heat, trotting it in 2:07 and by so doing establishing a new two-year record for two-year-old fillies. Mary Coburn was second in each heat, while third place went to Bertha McGuire.
 The Walnut Hill cup, 2:12 trot, was hardly more than a workout for Mabel Trask, who won the classic in straight heats.

MANY ENTRIES FOR COMING DOG SHOW

All Indications Point to Kennel Club's Exhibition being A Pronounced Success.
 The show committee of the N. B. Kennel Club at a meeting last night reported favorable progress on plans for the coming dog show to be held October 10-11-12. Entries are coming in fast and many inquiries have been received from fanciers and intending exhibitors throughout the Maritime Provinces in regard to the show.
 A communication was recently received from the judge who is to officiate at the show, G. Steadman Thomas, stating that he would surely be here. The selection of Mr. Thomas has met with unanimous approval and has been the means of some splendid dogs being entered from prominent kennels. Mr. Thomas is, as well known in England as in Canada and the States, as he goes to the old country annually, exhibiting and judging. Some of the famous dogs he has owned and bred are: Ch. Ivel Doctor, Ch. Portland Prince, Ch. Lord Yarmouth, In Alredales he is equally prominent with such dogs as Ch. Dumbarton Royalist, Ch. Endcliffe Commander, Ch. Vickery Crack, and Victoria, Ch. York Skylight and Ch. Kenmare Sorceress, the latter being one of the most sensational winners of recent years. In Irish Terriers, his Ch. Breda Bell, Ch. Thornecroft Sportsman, Ch. Kenmare Barrister and Ch. Endcliffe Muddler, are national in reputation. In other breeds, such as Smooth Fox, Wires, Scotch Terriers, Setters, Spaniels and Toy Varieties, the Thomas brand stands prominent. Mr. Thomas recently officiated at the big show at Danbury, judging all the prominent breeds.
 Additional cups have been secured by the committee and provided for local classes making more prizes open for local competition than ever before in the history of the club.
 In addition to the list of local prizes already announced, Mr. L. H. Powers is offering a cup for best terrier, rough coated, any variety; Mrs. L. H. Powers a cup for best terrier, smooth coated, and there will also be a special cup for best local cooker spaniel, any color, and a cup for best local English bull dog.
 A complete list of prizes to be offered at the show will be announced very soon and the cups and other prizes will be on exhibition in a prominent location in a day or two.

THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH
 Certainly knows good tobacco when he smokes it--that's why he has adopted Master-Mason the tobacco which smokes easier, lasts longer, tastes better and gives more satisfaction than other tobaccos ready cut and sold in tins or paper packets.
SMOKE Master Mason
 "IT'S GOOD TOBACCO"
 it is made of selected, fully matured tobaccos, pressed into a solid plug so as to seal in, as-it-were, the natural moisture and fragrance of the tobacco and ensures that mellowness and smoothness so much appreciated by smokers.

BARRY MAY BE ABLE TO PLAY IN POST SERIES
 Boston, Oct. 2.—Hope that Captain Jack Barry of the Red Sox, may be able to take his place in the blue ribbon series was revived today, when the star second baseman appeared for practice before the game with the Athletics. Barry favored the injured hand in catching, but threw to bases with his old-time strength, and later expressed the opinion that the intervening time between now and the opening of the series will complete the healing process. George Foster, the convalescent pitcher, was also in uniform, but is still weak.
