

being, who shall be ex-officio a governor thereof, the eighteen persons now holding the office of governors of Acadia College and six additional governors. Those now holding the office of governors of Acadia College shall be entitled to continue governors of Acadia University for the respective periods of their appointment, subject to the rules and regulations of said convention, and their successors in office, and the said six additional governors and their successors shall be appointed by said convention at such time and for such periods, and subject to such rules and regulations touching their appointment and removal as shall from time to time be adopted by said convention.

11. Seven governors, or such larger number as the board may fix, shall constitute a quorum of the board, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of the members present at the meeting of the board.

12. The Board of Governors shall appoint a body to be known as the Senate, to consist of the president of the university, and of such other persons not being governors as the said board shall appoint, whose duty it shall be to advise the board from time to time upon all matters concerning the system and course of education pursued in said university, academy and seminary, and the examination of all departments thereof, and concerning the courses of study and the qualification for degrees, and the granting of the same, and concerning the establishment of additional branches of instruction, and the appointment of the professors, and generally concerning all matters relating to the literary welfare of said university, academy and seminary, which shall from time to time be committed to said Senate for their advice and recommendation or action, who shall report to said board at such times as may be determined by the board. The present members of the Senate of Acadia College, except those who are or may be hereafter appointed governors of the said university, shall be members of the Senate under this act for the unexpired portion of the time for which they were respectively appointed. The Associated Alumni of said university shall have the right to nominate one-third of the members of such Senate.

13. The Board of Governors may appoint the members of the Senate for such period as they shall deem best, and may remove them on account of non-residence within the bounds of said Convention, non-attendance at meetings of the Senate, or for any other cause which they shall deem sufficient.

14. The proprietors of scholarships of Acadia College shall henceforth be deemed and taken to be proprietors of scholarships of Acadia University, with the same rights and privileges, and subject to the same conditions as were attached thereto previous to the time of the passing of this act.

15. All acts and parts of acts of this Legislature, in so far as they are inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.
