The Carleton Place Gerald.

Vol. LXIX, No. 14.

Professional Cards.

"ONWARD AND UPWARD."

Carleton Place, Lanark Co., Ont., Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1918

William Taylor Passes Away

One of Our Oldest and Best

Known Citizens

At the ripe old age of 82 years and

Terms--$1.50 a Year in Advances. Se.

We sell Everything that

Men and Boys Wear.

R.F. PRESTON, M.D. "A Scrap GEADUATE of Queen's University. Physician, Surgeon, &c. Office and residence. Bridge St., Carleton Place. J. A. MOEWEN, M.D., successor to Dr. D. A. Muirhead)

GRADUATE of Toronto University: House Surgeon C.G.P. Hospital, Ottawa ; Licen tiate of College of Physicians and Surgeons o fice-Old Bank of Ottawa Building, Franklinet, Carleton Place.

DR. DOWNING, Residence, Briege Street, formerly occupied by Dr. McFarlane. Telephone No. 55.

Attendant at Rosamond Memorial Hospital. Specialist in Operative Appendicitis and General Surgery. Almonte, Ont. Telephone Y

G. MODONALD, L.D.S., M.R.C.D.S SPECIAL attention given to the preservation of Natural Teeth; also the Extracting. Anses thetics administered when required. Hours from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Office-Galvin's Block, Carleton Place.

M. H. STEELE. L.D.S., D.D.S. RADUATE of Royal College of Dental Sur-geons and Philadelphia Dental College OFFICE: Strathers' Block, Carleton Place. Entrance, Bridge Street, next door to R. A. Patterson. Tglephone No. 48.

J. S. L. MONEELY, M.A., BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCER, Notary Public, &c. Office-Mill Sk., next Town Hall, Carleton Place. Branch Office at the Lewis House, Stittsville, Monday of each week. Special attention to Collection of Accounts. Private Funds to Loan.

PATTERSON & FINDLAY, BATRISTERS, SOLICITORS, Notaries Public Conveyancers, &c. Solicitors for the Bank of Offares, Carleton Place Offices in the new Ottawa Bank building. Money to Loan. ROBT. C. PATTERSON GEO. H. FINDLAY

C. MoINTOSH, B.C.L., LL.B., RRISTER, Solicitor of the Supreme Court. Notary, Conveyancer &c. Solicitor for the on Bank of Canada. Rec-McDiarmid's New Block, Carlston Place. Money to Loan.

J. W. GIVEN

TEACHER OF PIANO ORGAN AND VOICE STUDIO in Bell's Block, over Keaye'

D.R.MCNEELY

Manufacturer of Every Description of G Stone. Monuments of Newest Gesigns kept in stock. All inscriptions Nextly Gut and Guilded by First class Work no.

rard on Franktown Edwards' Grou CARLETON PLACE, ON 0

D

3

Seasonable Goods Now on View.

and more arriving day by day

WATCH OUR SHOW WINDOWS for Novelties as the season ad vances

A. Neilson Watchmaker, Jeweler and Optician. - - CARLETON PLACE Taylor Block.

mmmmm

Put your best foot upward as well as orward to reach the top of the ladder. Pte. Neil McGregor, who has been with the engineers at Brockville, has left with others for the other side. Rev. Mr. Lawson, of the Methodist church, will exchange pulpits next Sun-day with Rev. Mr. Howitt, of Almonte. of Paper'

When you need it.

Nice Writing Paper, in small or large pads or

W. P. PATTIE

Druggist and Stationer.

MISCELLANEOUS

For Stenographer, Secretary or Accountant, wave the best courses available anywhere.

Last year our increase was 45%. This year to date is even better. Still Employers Demand Exceed the Number of Willis Graduates.

N. I. HARRISON, Principal

WILLIS COLLEGE

A BIG DRIVE

OTTAWA

$67.75-age 20

$77.50-ade 26

1917

A YEAR OF PROGRESS

Traveller's Rate, $2.00 per day. Sheds Free.

CUSINESS COLLECE

EXPERIENCE vs.

boxes.

The Salvation Army has launched a drive to raise a million dollars in Can-ada to extend its great work among and for the soldiers.

The teachers of Lanark West and Smiths Falls will hold their Convention in the Collegiate Institute, Smiths Falls on Oct. 10th and 11th.

The Presbyterian congregations will each hold their own services next Sunday at the regular hours, after union services during the past five months.

The big attraction at the Opera House this week is "The Marriage Question," to-morrow evening (Wedne day). The plan now open at Pattie's. The oldest resident of Cornwall, if not of Eastern Ontario, died the other day in the person of Francis Kirkley, who had sattained the remarkable age of 105 years and ten months.

At the annual thank offering meeting of Zion church Willing Workers, held last evening, Rev. Mr. Forsythe, of the Baptist church, delivered the address. offering was in the neighborhood of $30.

of $30. . Mr. Thos. Lowry, Superintendent of the House of Industry, Perth, says one of the inmates is 104 years of age. He was a soldier in the British army in his-younger days. He still enjoys remark-ably good health. EXPERIMENT Learning office work is like learning any other nd of work or trade or profession.

Miss Glover purposes returning to the west with her brother in law Mr. E Howe, next week, and with a desire to close up her business affairs here Machinists are trained by practical machinists, doctors by doctors, dentists by dentists. The secret of success of the Graduates of Willis College is that they are the only ones trained by expert, experienced office workers for expert work. announces an auction sale of household effects for Friday atternoon next.

Miss Winifred Lewis, late of Ottawa, ow of Clarendon House Convalescent Home, London, Eng., will give an address, on her war work at the Woman's Institute meeting Saturday afternoon, Oct. 5th. Everybody wel-same from two was Eaton's advertise at $6.10. His price, delivered and set up, will be $6.25. Farmers who call for it house, and was held prisoner for over can have it for $65.5, and they get it the same day, no writing, postage, uncertainty or delay. It is quite possible that the same can be procured in other towns, but the local dealers don't advertise the fact enough.

Mr. Richard Moore, a former resident of Carleton Piace, who left here some 40 years ago celebrated his golden wedding on Sept. 17th. at his home near Desbarats, Ont., when all of the family with 15 grandchildren assembled to commemorate the occasion. Mr. Wm. Pattie received a very nice reminder of the occasion.

Capt. Hooper in Canada Again Just as THE HERALD goes to prewe learn by wire that Capt. W. H. Hooper has arrived in Halifax, so we may expect to welcome him back to Carleton Place very soon en months Mr. Wm. Taylor, for over ixty years a prominent citizen of Carle Mrs. Elwood Lawson will receive at ton Place, passed to his reward o the Methodist parsonage first and second Wednesdays of the month. Saturday morning, after a day or two illness, at the home of his daughter Mrs. W. H. Robinson and little daughter Margaret, of Drumheller, Alta., Mrs. A. C. Brown, with whom he had been residing since the death of his some three years ago. are visiting with friends in town.

Mr. D. B. Oliver has returned from his annual hunting trip and looks and feels much the better of his outing. Miss Margaret Switzer, of Ashton Station, left last Friday for Sarnia, where she purposes spending a month with friends.

Mr. F. A. McCallum, accountant of the Bank of Otrawa, has been transferred to Renfrew, and will leave in a day or two for his new position. Rev. Mr. Monds is expected h from the west in a few days, and will be accorded a reception by the congregation of St. Andrew's on Thursday evening. Mr. Angus McPhee has just received word from his son Angus, from whom he had no communication for 17 years. He is fighting with the allied troops in Palest Mr. W. N. Stevenson, of Almonte, has been engaged as organist in the Methodist church here, and will assume his duties next Sunday. Miss Hazel Allen goes to St. Andrew's.

William Taylor was born in Hamil-ton, Scotland, November 21st, 1835, and so was close to 83 years of age. He We regret to know that our esteemed we regret to know that our esteemed townsman, Mr. Peter Cram, sustained a light stroke yesterday morning that has affected his speech. He is otherwise quite cheerful and it is hoped that he will rally are a backet. was a son of the late William Taylor of that city. On attaining his majority, will rally again shortly. having served his apprenticeship as tinsmith and plumber, he migrated Canada, his father's family and t

Mr. George Grube, förmerly of Carleton Place, now located at Bellamy's has received word of the death of his son Pte. James-Harold Grube, who was killed in action recently somewhere in France. Jim's mother was before her-marriage Miss McFadden, a daughter of the late James McFadden. Jim was 24 wears of acc. Donald family, who preceded him, being near friends in the old land. He first landed in Dalhousie township, but his stay there was only transitory, and he came to Carleton Place, where he obtained employment at his trade, and

Hand Pierced by Pin

years of age.

While Norman Merriman, of Crosby, commemorate the occasion. Mr. Wm. Pattie received a very nice reminder of the occasion. A merchant in Renfrew advertises in the same iron yee asset Eaton's advertise at Sol.0. to-day. In 1899 he sold out to his sons John and C.F.R. and retired. Mr. Taylor's life had been a very bisy one. He took a keen interest in all public affairs and was a great reader. He was always interested in civil matters and gave many years of service to education as a member of the School Board In religion be was a Presbyterian, and would walk regularly out to Beckwith to attend the service at Black's Corners before there was a church in town. 'He was one of the founders of Zion church, being treasurer' of the first building fund, and held all offices in connection with the congregation, also teaching for. years in the Sunday School, and never missed a service if a home and sideness years in the Sunday School, and never missed a service if at home and sickness did not intervene, and was in his pew the Sunday prior to his death. In March, 1863 he married Barbara Donald, daughter of the late John Donald of Dahbousie township, and four soos and one daughter blace their fire of getting into your heavy underwear at the first signs of colder weather. You will not feel the good of it later on when the winter has set in in earnest ; let the change be gradual.

Come to our store and purchase some of our medium weight Merino Underwear. in either two-piece or combination style. This is an ideal weight for this time of year, a good protection against Fall chills. We have also a good stock of Fleecelined Underwear on hand for those who prefer this type,

He

and the

Winter Underwear has been arriving lately, and we are prepared to oufit those wishing to stock up in the * heavier lines.

a little later ventured into business for himself. He built the building over the river, at present occupied by Mr. Mc Pherson, barber, where most of his children were born, and later built the substantial brick dwelling on Charlotte substantial brick dwelling on Charlotte street, for so many years the home. His business grew with his family, and he added hardware, oil and coal to bis tinware, extending far and wide into the country on all sides in a wholesale way. In first, and the old McArthur property on the corner of Bridge and Mill streets and erected the splendid brick block that bears his name to-day. In 1899 he sold out to his F.C. MCDIARMID Phone 143. THE PALACE GROGERY

SOMETHING NEW IN A BREAKFAST FOOD Cream of Barley

Bank Account.

1391 Sparks Street, Ottawa, entrance between Ketchum's & Sims'. "A Position for Every Willis Graduate." for stenographers. For the past year the Civil Service Commission has been scouring the Country for completent stenographers. On Feb. 16 every Branch of the Service was placed under the Commission which means that the demands are now doubled.

Conserve YOUR Assers by building up a