

ment," "The Beginning of a Society," "Modern Method of Christian Nurture," etc. These little pamphlets, when printed in large quantities, can be furnished for about two cents each. "Uniform Prayer-meeting Topics," for a dollar a hundred, and the "Cards for Application," "Active Membership Pleige," etc., for about fifty cents a hundred. These supplies, when printed separately for a society, would usually cost several times as much. By raising a club for the THE GOLDEN RULE, every society can practically have its printing done free by accepting the literature premium.

STATE UNION.

Form of Constitution for a State Christian Endeavor Union.

This Constitution is based on that of the Connecticut Christian Endeavor Union, and is recommended by the Executive Committee of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor. It contemplates the formation of local unions, which, so far as they exist, shall be connected with the State Union through their presidents, who are ex officio members of the State Union. Societies not connected with local unions, will be represented in the management of the State Union through the officers and elected members of the Executive Committee, all of whom are chosen at the annual meeting.

The annual meeting is one of societies, not one of unions, all societies belonging to the State Union having equal right in its meetings, whether they belong to a local