The pulpit of the Baptist church will be occupied next Lord's day, April 13th, at both services, by the Rev. I. A. Corbett, B. A., of Paradise. Mr. Corbett is one of the younger ministers of the Baptist denomination and is held in high esteem by his brethren.

To Let.—Store by Royal Hotel, Main Street. Apply to C. H. PORTER, Wolfville.

We are informed by Dr. Spilde that the item in last week's paper stating that he was supplying the pulpit of Kentville Baptist church during the pastor's absence was an error. This we regret, and can only say that our authority was the Maritime Baptist, which we supposed was always right.

You are urged to keep Tuesday afternoon, April 15th, free for the Red Cross. There will be held that day from 4 to 7 p. m. in C. H. Porter's store an afternoon tea, together with a sale of aprons, home-made candy and icecream. A special feature will be a display of potted plants for sale. These will be sold at reasonable prices, and orders taken for cut flowers.

Phonograph? Yes, the Cellian is still ahead to tone, dulc and price. plays all makes of disc records, come in and hear it at A. V. RASO'S.

The congregation of the Wolfville Baptist church is moving in the direction of securing a permanent home before a new building. A committee was appointed last week to see what properties were available. This committee reported on Wednesday evening in favor of the property on Prospect street belonging to Mrs. Geo. J. Bryant, now occupied by Prof. Whistler. We understand a meeting of the congregation will be held next to decide on the purchase.

Married in New York.

RAND—KENNEDY. A quiet wedding took place at the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York, on Wednesday evening, March 26th, when Daisy G., second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Kennedy, of Grand Pre, was united in marriage to Fred V., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Rand, of Wolfville. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Chas. A. Eaton, pastor of the church. The bride looked very charming in a gown of blue, garnished with satin, embroidered in blue and amber, with picture hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand are both well known in Wolfville and their many friends in this vicinity will join THE ACADIAN in best wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.

The Boy Scouts.

On Wednesday evening a meeting of the older boys was held for the purpose of organizing as Scouts. After this these boys (15 and over) will meet on Wednesday evening at 7.30. The remainder of the Scouts will meet as usual on Friday evening. The program for this evening will include a talk by Rev. Mr. Dixon and examinations for Electrician and Automobile badges. A regular course of Physical Training will be given every Friday evening.

A meeting of the Kings County Sunday School Association will be held in St. Stephen's Methodist church, Kentville, Friday, April 11th. This will be an important meeting and Sunday School workers of all denominations in the county are urged to attend to get new ideas in their work. Rev. Mr. Hume, general secretary for the Maritime provinces, will be present, and also the general secretary of the State of Wisconsin, Mr. J. I. Rogers. There will be three sessions beginning at 10 a. m., 2.30 and 7.30 p. m.
