LADIES' COSTUME, CONSISTING OF A SEVEN-GORED SKIRT AND A WAIST WITH ETON FRONTS AND FITTED LINING. (Much Admired for Business and College Wear.) (For Illustrations see Page 376.)

No. 1471.—This costume is an excellent style for business or college women and also for shopping and other utility wear. Serge was here chosen for it and braid gives a neat finish. The skirt is in seven gores and presents a moderate flare, the lower edge measuring nearly four yards and a fourth in the medium sizes. Very slight gathers are made over the hips and the back is gathered up closely to hang in full folds that may be held out more prominently by any style of extender, if desired.

The waist is arranged on a lining fitted by double bust darts and the usual seams and the closing is made at the center of the front. The wide back has a center seam and under-arm gores give perfect smoothness at the sides. Stylish fulness in the fronts is drawn to the center by gathers at the neck and lower edge and puffs out prettily between Eton fronts that are pointed at the lower front corners and fitted gracefully to the lines of the figure by single bust darts. A straight at the back and pointed in front both at the top and bottom is applied on the waist, which is worn over the skirt. The neck is completed with a standing collar. The two seam sleeves and have coat-shaped ed linings which are gathered down the top and stand out in a stylish way. The costume will make a Wh suitably in cloth, velvet, serge, flannel, smooth cloth and mixed woollens in suitable color. The finish may be absolutely plain or a decorative combination may be given by fancy or plain braiding or narrow gingham. We have provided No. 1471 in eleven sizes for ladies from thirty to forty-four inches bust measure. Under the medium size the garment needs a quires five yards and a half of material for edges: four inches wide. Price three pattern, 1s. 8d. or 35 cents.
