

1892, and was placed in Class I., Div. 1. In 1893 he obtained the Smith prize for an essay "On the Continuous Deformation of Surfaces," and proceeded to the M.A. degree, 1895. In 1894 he was elected Fellow of Christ Coll., and, in 1896, he was apptd. an Examr. in the Civil Service Comm. He is a Lib. in politics. As regards religions, he respects them all so far as they promote the happiness of mankind.—54 Bernard St., Russell Sq., London, W.C.; Golfer's Club.

MALHIOT, Hon. Henri Gédéon, retired judge, is the s. of the late Numidique Malhiot, by his wife, Elizabeth, dau. of Maj. Rousseau. The family came from France, 1663. B. at St. Pierre les Becquets, P.Q., Mch. 6, 1837, he was ed. at the Colls. of Nicolet, Chambly and Joliette, and was called to the bar, 1858. He practised in Three Rivers, of which city he was Mayor, 1885-88. He was also Presdt. of the St. Jean Bapt. Soc. there. Returned to the Legislature for Three Rivers, g. e. 1871, he sat in that body up to Feb., 1876, when he was apptd. a Comnr. for the construction of the Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Occidental Ry. (new forming a portion of the Can. Pac. Ry. system). In the interval between his first election and retirement, he was for some yrs. Comnr. of Crown Lands in the De Boucherville Admn., and Govt. leader in the Assembly. Mr. M. was apptd. a Comnr. to enquire into the working of the public service, P. Q., 1883; and, in 1885, was sent to Rome with a petition to the Pope protesting against the div. of the R. C. Diocese of Three Rivers. He was created a Q. C. by the Quebec Govt., 1874, and by the Marquis of Lorne, 1880, and was raised to the Bench as a Puisne Judge of the S. C., P. Q., Sept. 20, 1888. His Lordship is a R. C. in religion, and has been twice m., 1st, July, 1865, to Elizabeth Eugenie, dau. of D. G. LaBarre, N.P., of Three Rivers (she d.); and 2ndly, to Louise, dau. of the late Hon. L. A. Olivier, Senator. He retired from the Bench, July, 1897.—Three Rivers, P.Q.

MALLOBY, Albert Elhanan, M.D., is the s. of the late Caleb R. Malloby (U. E. L. descent), and was b. at Cobourg, Ont., Feb. 1, 1849. Ed. at Albert Coll., Belleville, he pursued his med. studies at McGill Univ. (M.D., 1872), and practised for some yrs. at Warkworth, Ont. He was licensed by the Royal Coll. of Phys., and by the Royal Coll. of Surg., Edinburgh, 1878, and obtained a cert. of Brit. registration the same year. For many yrs. one of the most effective speakers on the Lib. side of politics, he was returned to the Ho. of Commons for East Northumberland in that interest, g. e. 1887, but was subsequently unseated on petition, and afterwards defeated on a fresh appeal to the electorate. In 1889 he was appointed by the Ont. Govt. Regr. for East Northumberland, an office he still holds. He is a member of the Meth. Ch., and m. Jan., 1880, Frances, young. dau. of the late Sheriff Waddell, Chatham, Ont.—Colborne, Ont.

"No one ever entered the House of Commons who rose to greater popularity during a single session."—J. S. Willison.

MALLOBY, Caleb Alvard, Patron leader, bro. of the preceding, was b. at the family homestead near Cobourg, Ont., Sept. 30, 1841. He is the eld. s. in a family of six. Ed. at Victoria Univ., his health did not permit him to remain there beyond his sophomore year. It was necessary for him to get away from the lake air, and he went back into the woods to his present farm near Warkworth, in the Tp. of Percy, East Northumberland. He chopped and cleared the farm himself, and has resided there ever since. He entered municipal life, and was for 16 yrs. Reeve of Percy, having previously been Deputy Reeve and Councillor. In 1888 he was chosen Warden of Northumberland and Durham. He was a candidate for the Ont. Assembly for East Northumberland in a by-election, 1888,