
BILL.

An Act to define the Boundary between the Districts of Bathurst and Johnstown.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to lower Preamble the precise boundary between the Bathurst and Johnstown Districts, so that it is uncertain in which District certain property is situate; and it is expedient and necessary to remove such doubts, and to define the said boundary: Be it therefore declared and enacted, &c.

And it is hereby declared and enacted, What shall be the line between the Districts of Bathurst and Johnstown 10 by the authority of the same, That the middle of the Rideau Lake and River, in front of the Townships of North Burgess, North Elmsley, and Montague, has been and is the boundary line between the 15 said District of Bathurst and the said District of Johnstown: Provided always, that wherever the line drawn along the middle of the said Lake and River, within the limits aforesaid, passes over any island, such 20 island shall be deemed to have been and is hereby declared to be in the said District of Bathurst if the greater part thereof lies north of the said line, and in the District of Johnstown if the greater part thereof lies south of 25 the said line
