The Scrap Book

ST. THOMAS, Ont., intends to revive a well known song entitled "Put Me Among the Girls," which will be rehearsed with vigour until June 8th. On the following day many masculine hearts will beat rapidly, for St. Thomas is to be stormed by 200 young lady students from Cincinnati. These young students are on a visit to New York and have asked the M. C. R. officials to arrange a two-hours stay in St. Thomas. Mr. S. H. Palmer, the divisional passenger agent of the M. C. R., has the matter in hand and will endeavour to have the local authorities interest themselves in the forthcoming visit.

The party is travelling under the name of the Radnor College Educational Tour. It is rumoured that nearly every town along the route has sent invitations to the party to visit them, where a warm reception would be accorded. Time alone prevents their acceptance. It is very doubtful, if the invitations had joined in with their plans, whether the 200 scholastic ladies would ever reach their destination.

It is hardly probable that St. Thomas will petition to change its name to St. Anthony.

Wizard Carter's Wand.

UNDER Mr. J. Purves Carter's magic touch, another valuable old master has been discovered in Halifax, N.S., and Miss Wallace is the proud possessor of "Diana at the Chase," a genuine Van Dyke, valued at $150,000.

The picture was purchased by her late father, a barrister in Halifax, many years ago in London for a small sum. Miss Wallace has already refused $10,000 for her treasure.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Carter will visit every town and village in Canada where his skill and knowledge may lead to more valuable discoveries.

The public are beginning to follow Mr. Carter's movements with keen interest and an amusing story is told of a certain old lady, who claims to be a connoisseur of art, relating to all present at a spiritualistic meeting, that she was certain beyond doubt that Mr. Carter was the reincarnation of an old master.

It is to be hoped that the compliment will spur Mr. Carter on.

The Sun-Worshipper.

SENATOR TILLMAN became reminiscent one stormy day: "Yes, this is bad weather. It is nothing to London, though. Once, on a dripping water day in London, a sulphur-brown or pea-soup fog in the air, and everybody drenched to the skin, I sat on a bus top beside a Parsee in a red fez. When the Parsee got off, the driver of the bus, touching his hat with his whip, said to me: 'Would you mind tellin' me, sir, what sort o' chap that is?' 'He's a Parsee,' said I. 'An Indian, you know; a sun worshipper.' 'Worships the sun, does he, sir?' said the wet and shivering driver. 'I suppose he's come 'ere to 'ave a rest?'"

Don't Mention It.

THE politest man in Boston collided violently with another man on the street. The second man was angry.

"My dear sir," said the polite one with a bow, "I don't know which of us is to blame for this encounter. If I ran into you, I beg your pardon; if you ran into me, don't mention it."

—Success.

Give Children Good Bread and Butter

YOU may say bread is bread and all children want plenty of it. In a way, that's true.

But it makes considerable difference whether the bread you give your children now counts just as a "filler" or whether it counts for future health. For there is a vital difference between breads made from different flours.

The most healthful as well as the cheapest food in the world is bread made from

Royal Household Flour

This bread isn't merely something to fill a hungry stomach. It is a perfectly balanced food, rich in strengthening, blood-making material.

It counts for long life.

It counts for a vigorous constitution.

It counts for bone and muscle making and good rich blood.

And this because "Royal Household" is made from the finest wheat in the world — the famous Red Fyfe — richest in high quality gluten, most in demand, and most valued in all the markets of the world.

Growing children thrive on bread made from "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD". It gives them just the nourishment their systems need and in the most digestible and tempting form.

And it is natural food. It takes the place of meat, at one quarter of the cost, and is more quickly assimilated.

There is no better flour in the world than "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD", it is best and most economical for Bread, Pies, Cakes, Rolls, Muffins, Biscuit, and all family baking.
