

so week in the N. W. and where any dissatisfaction among the Indians was a source of danger; so that I gave him £ 10 - expressed to be in consideration of his good conduct in the N. W.
Territories, and if the Service covered by the account is the same to as that to which I refer, I consider his claim not only absolutely extinguished but most amply paid, ~~which~~ by the £ 10. which was certainly more than any good he ever did, though perhaps a trifle in comparison to the much he might have made.

Second - claim for $200 for going after the Sioux who were disappointed in seeing me.

Would it seems be amply met by one fourth of the amount.

His business took him to
