Sir,

I reply to your letter of the 13th inst. I am commanded by the S. S. to inform you that he approves of the proposed suggestion of offering for sale at Amherstburg those Indian Presents now in store at Pontchartraine which are no longer required for the service of the Indian Dept.

I am also to suggest that if there are any further quantities of these ~~same~~ articles at other Depots, it would be advantageous to dispose of them at the same time.

I have &c.
