

SEVENTH DAY.

FIRST SESSION.—Opening, 284; Notices by Secretaries, 284; Resolution concerning National Arbitration read, 285. Essay, "Adaptation of the Church to the Needs of Modern Life," S. D. Chown, 288. Addresses—"Function of the Church in the Life of the Community," Sir George Smith, 292; "Interdenominational Co-operation," N. W. Rowell. Discussion—Sir Robert W. Perks, 300; A. J. Wallace, 301; J. Pearce, 302; J. Alfred Sharp, 302; Bishop Collins Denny, 303; Chancellor N. Burwash, 304; Wm. Flint, 305; T. J. Moppina, 308; George P. Maina, 307; A. B. Leonard, 308; Councillor A. Shaw, 308; J. S. Ross, 309; Bishop W. A. Candler, 310. Announcements by Secretary, 311.

SECOND SESSION.—Opening Exercises, 311. Addresses—"International Relations and Responsibilities," J. Scott Lidgett, 311; "The Church and the World's Peace," Alderman T. Snape, 321. Resolution on International Arbitration, moved by the Chairman, Bishop E. R. Hendrix, 324, and seconded by Henry Haigh, 320. Remarks by Sir R. W. Perks, 323; George Elliott, 329; Motion to Adopt, 330. General Remarks—Bishop E. E. Hoss, 330; E. G. B. Mann, 331; Marvin Campbell, 332; A. J. Wallace, 332; Enoch Salt, 333.

THIRD SESSION.—Opening Exercises, 334. Essay, "Ideal Evangelism—Formative and Reformatory," Franklin M. Thomas, 334. Addresses—"Characteristic of Early Methodist Preaching," Henry T. Smart, 341; "Modern Evangelistic Methods," J. Ernest Rattenbury, 343. Discussion—William E. Skinner, 348; David G. Downey, 349; C. Ensor Walters, 350; C. G. Clement, 350; T. T. Fishburne, 351; John H. Goodman, 351; Joseph Johnson, 352; Bishop E. E. Hoss, 353; Edward J. Brallafoord, 353; Norman T. C. Sargent, 354; the Chairman, 354. Announcements, 355.

EIGHTH DAY.

FIRST SESSION.—Opening Services, 358; Report from Business Committee, 358; Ecumenical Commission recommended, 357; Resolution to create such Commission deferred, 357; Remarks on subject by Sir R. W. Perks, 358, and by Bishop J. W. Hamilton, 359. Publication of Proceedings and Papers of the Conference considered, and subscriptions for same taken, after remarks by Bishop Hamilton, 362. Notices given, 364. Essay, "The Social Teaching of the Old and New Testaments," Gross Alexander, 364. Addresses—"Our Social Duty as a People's Church," W. Hodson Smith, 373; "Socialism, Christian and Anti-Christian," B. Haddon, 381. Discussion—Herbert Welch, 386; J. Ernest Rattenbury, 387; George Elliott, 388; Mrs. Joseph Johnson, 389; J. E. Radcliffe, 390; William Wakinshaw, 391; Thomas Manning, 391; W. Blackburn FitzGerald, 392. Notices and Announcements, 393.

SECOND SESSION.—Introductory Services, 398; Report from Editorial Committee adopted, 398. Essay, "Readjustment of Church Work in Cities," Frank Mason North, 398. Addresses—"Settlement Work," George P. Eckman, 401; "Relation of Methodist Churches—City, Suburban, and Rural," William Bradfield, 404. Discussion—C. Ensor Walters, 409; J. G. Bickerton, 409; E. A. White, 410; J. Scott Lidgett, 411; Robert Forbes, 412; Richard F. Broomfield, 412; W. Hodson Smith, 413; John A. Patten, 414; Thomas Worthington, 415; Mrs. Lucy Rider Meyer, 415. Announcements, 417.

THIRD SESSION.—Opening Services, 417; Reception of Fraternal Delegates, Remarks by Chairman Maclaren, 417. From the Baptist World Alliance, J. H. Farmer, introduced by Claudius B. Spencer, 418; from the National Congregational Council, S. P. Cadman, introduced by same, 421; from the Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, John Sommerville, 424, and Hamilton Casals, 427, introduced by same. Responses to Addresses—F. L. Wiseman, 433; H. M. DuBose, 442. Benediction by Dr. Cadman, 445.