

instructions measures for oses taxa-
l, 31, 137;
by, 32-3, ude of the ations for
-6; letter ituation in ioning the addock at lty to his xation, 42, lengthenembly, 43;
es of his ttitude to 44; joins erick, 45;
Braddock
servants, ing from ensions as 52; en-ia for de-
; receives at and sets d, 57-60;
Dunbar,
k's defeat irs left to, orce, 62;
province,
council of 3, 77, 14;
71-3, 76, militia to view as to equence of on the on of de-command
; and the
; opposed nts under ilds chain
; recom-
ton, 99; ostility to 2; death of his brother John, 112-13; distress as to provisioning of troops at Fort Cumberland, 136; refuses request for supply of seamen, 137; voluminous correspondence, 140; the Assembly and his secretary, 140; remonstrance to Loudonn as to quartering of troops, 140-1; on Loudonn's recall, 145, 155; sets off with militia to garrison Fort Cumberland, 146, 158; question of his rank, 146; on Abercrombie's defeat at Ticonderoga, 155 et seq.; encourages troops at Fort Frederick, 157; on the delay in the southern campaign, 157; buys blankets for Forbes, 158; on Forbes's progress to Fort Duquesne, 160; angered by Denny's submission to Assembly of Penn., 167; on the siege of Niagara, 170; work after capture of Quebec, 176; Whitehall, 188 et seq., 278, 279; various presents to Lord Baltimore, 189; defence of Ridout, 193; friendship for Ridout, 4, 190-4, 261, 279; Miss Ogle, 194; criticism of Calvert's proposals regarding the Assembly, 199-200; and the boundary question, 203-4; receives presents from Lord Baltimore, 205, 235; and the Stamp Act, 208 et seq.; sells Baltimore's manors, 228; efforts to ameliorate condition of convict ships, 230; the Episcopate in Maryland, 232; Bennett Allen, 234 et seq.; solicits a living for Boucher, 239; dismissed from office, 242-5; returns to England, 250; interest in conflict of American Revolution, 255 et seq.; leaves his estate in Ridout's management, 251, 262, 264, 268; prospect of return as governor, 260-1, 263, 266; sells Ridout's tobacco, 261, 262, 265; fever and ague, 263; on Browning v. Hertford claims, 263-4; the present of hambs to Hamersley, 264, 265;

Sam Ridout's school fees, 265; instructs Ridout as to disposal of young slaves, 267; meets Samuel Chase in London, 278; death, 279; will, 279; length of his rule, 11; his house and entertainments, 11, 188-90, 245; friendship for Dr. Upton Scott, 3; portrait by Hesselius, 245; mementoes of, 280-1.

Appreciations of, 35, 245; by King George III., 197; and George II., 198; Eddis's estimate of, 248-9.

Characteristics, 2, 12-13, 28, 111, 158, 188-9, 190, 244-5, 246, 248-9, 267; love of flowers, 3; and garden, 189, 244, 265, 278; as soldier, 13, 28; reputation for wise council in military operations, 73, 74; attachment to his family, 114; loyal churchman, 179.

Otherwise mentioned, 34, 50, 67 et passim.

Sharpe, Gregory (brother), 2, 4, 114, 191.

— John (brother), a guardian of the 6th Lord Baltimore, 112, 114.

— Joshua (brother), 114.

— Philip (brother), 114, 214.

— William (brother), 13, 112, 114.

Shawanese, the, 62, 94, 124, 127, 159, 202.

Shirley, William, Lieut.-Gov. of Massachusetts, 39, 40, 64-5, 85; project for capture of Louisbourg, 64-5; attitude to Acadians, 85; commander-in-chief, 65-6; loss of his sons, 58, 66, 77; sends to Sharpe an account of his forces, 66; confirms appointment of Washington, 72; decision to raise two more regiments, 76-7; strengthens Oswego and defences of Lake Ontario, 77; council of war at New York, 71, 75, 76, 77; abandons attempt on Frontenac, 73; on strength of British and French on Lake Ontario, 78;