

Entrance to the Rose Garden.

welfare of officer and other rank patients. Lady Watson has provided and installed our cinematograph machine, which has been such a boon to happiness here.

Mrs. Arthur Walter, mother of the owner of this beautiful mansion, has been a sincere and untiring devotee to the interests and welfare of the Canadians at Bear Wood. Since taking up her residence near the Hospital she has undertaken many useful projects on behalf of our patients and by frequent unconventional visits to the sisters' mess has always kept in touch with our activities, interests, and desires, and has many a time just added the necessary influence to turn the tide of fortune right into our midst. Mrs. Walter's work party have repaired over 8,000 socks for the patients.

Friends who have interested themselves in this Hospital are numerous and genuine. Mrs. Murdoch, of Buckhurst, Wokingham, has always been a local booster for Bear Wood and its charges, and has more than once befriended them by giving frequent entertainments at her country home as well as interesting her many friends in our behalf.

Mr. John Simonds, Newlands, Arborfield, and daughters have always been hospitable to staff and patients, constantly including in their dinner parties officers from the staff, who are so far from home and corresponding Canadian privileges. Miss Beatrice Simonds has created amongst the sick ward patients considerable interest in art needlework.

The Beeton-Fosters, of Sindlesham House, were among the earliest to call and pay their respects to the Canadian newcomers and are still constantly proffering us their sympathy, hospitality, and material assistance, having contributed a Thames River boat to the fleet of recreation craft maintained on the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Littledale, Wick Hill House, have frequently extended the privileges of Wick Hill House to the Canadians here.

Mr. Courtney Wilson and his sisters have always been most courteous and sympathetic towards the Canadians domiciled here, and have constantly courted the privilege of assisting in every way possible, either in the work of the unit or extending the hospitality of Winnersh Grove to the members of the staff here.

The Misses Cobham, Avenue House, have welcomed the staff of this unit to their hospitable home and have closely associated themselves with our undertakings.

Mrs. Hatheral, of Clare Court, Wokingham, has always shown a keen interest in the welfare of the sick ward patients, sending them fruit in season. The officers have been frequent guests in this hospitable home.

Mrs. Montizambert and Miss Montizambert, of Trelawny, Earley, have been very true friends of Bear Wood. They have been unceasing in their solicitations after the Canadians here and practically ran an open house