THE CATHOLIC REGISTER, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1903

the I is suit it's share at the waists and dainty linen are made delightfully e clean and fresh with Sunlight Soap. Sauntering in Florence theatre burst into laughter and ap-plause, and "Hamlet" was nearly turned into a farce. All the English visitors to Italy are not so ridiculous as those mentioned by Grant Allen, and he cuts nimself off from community of opin-on with these ridiculous ones. Ruskin appreciated and taught his fellow-countrymen how to appreciate many of the beauties of Florence, though his manner of teaching was somewhat bumptious. All the quali-fications of power and beauty, which occur more or less in different build-mouldering, no great matter there," replied the grave digger. And when Hamlet asks again why, he is told "Twill not be seen in him there; there the man are as mad as he."

At this the whole ngs, some in one and some in another, Ruskin notes; "but all to-gether, and all in their highest pos-(Dublin Freeman.) Florence, 9th October ible degrees, they exist, as far as I know, only in building in the world, the Campanile (or Bell-Tower) of Giotto at Florence." Ruskin, as a In Italy a railway journey of a few hours brings you not only to a new city, but to what seems a new land, where the tone of thought of the their familiar speech, and views of things differ widely the people in the place dows by sunlight and moonlight; and from those of There is such a strikyou have left. between Milan and ageness of the northern Gothic when difference Milan, with all its bravery pountry. of buildings, its grand arcade or galtery, its five houses and places of quickly felt, between the rising of easy author, even to them-is what business and royal palace, all in the of vicinity rocks out of a green lake, with their seem to have been built in comparatlvely recent days, and in any or no rude. special style of architecture Flor- shafts, and triple lights, without a seat in Parliament, whence pricence, on the other hand, seems to tracery or other ornament than the ciples will be urged that would make nave been created at one period, and martins' nest in the height of them, Dante blush with indignation. to have the mark of its origin upon and that bright, smooth, sunny sur-Milan suce the houses are neat and simple by the tourist staying but a few days are actually mean and squalid. Wheresoever you saunter in Florence an irresistable instinct leads you to the square or piazza in which stand three of the noblest and most meautiful buildings in this round world - The Duomo, or Cathedral, diotto's Tower, a simple belfry; and a the Baptistery. The traffic of the a mity scems to begin and end here. By one side of the Baptistery is a cab-

Absolutely Pure hoy, used to despise the Campanile. THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE but in after years he lived beside it and looked out upon it from his win he could not readily forget the sav-Quotations from it were launched Florence that you might be tempted he afterwards stood, for the first the Conservative candidate with more to imagine they were not in the same time, beneath the front of Salisbury or less appropriateness. The appeal Cathedral. The contrast is, indeed, to the knowledge of Dante amongst strange, he says, "if it could be the people-and he is by no means an those gray walls out of their quiet surprises one most. The streets are the glorious cathedral, swarded space, like dark and barren vocal with his phrases engraved on marble, and he is called in by a rough-grained smart lawyer to assist in conquering

THE OLD RELIABLE

As you walk along the streets other The 15th century is, if one may face of glowing jasper, those spiral slabs relate that in the house to judge it by architectural evidence, shafts and fairy traceries, so white, which the slab is attached someone the date when the civic buildings of so faint, so crystalline, that their known to fame lived or died, or some Florence came into being. Many of slight shapes are hardly traced in notable event had happened within its c. arcaes bear the signs of an darkness on the pallor of the eastern walls. On the Workhouse, in the the put ic buildings; but even these alabaster, colored like a morning cloud, and chased like a sea-shell." about that period. Florence is thus Grand as this language is, it faintly lengthy inscription telling that it is a con pact city, presenting to our expresses the emotions and feelings to the provident munificence of eyes the outward signs of what an that take possession of you as you Napoleon the Great, "Emperor of Italian city was like five centuries look up the four sides of this simple the French and King of Italy," in the ago. In the renovated "centre" of square building, so beautiful in its seventh year of his Empire, "memor-Florence the new buildings are less very simplicity, and so rich in its able for the fortunate birth of the showy and more solid than those of adornment, and so great a joy and King of Rome, the hope of the but in the outskirts of Flor- delight to the eye. Nothing can hurt world," etc., etc., that Florence owes this institution. How history has the exquisite glory of its beauty, and their surroundings beautiful, like a lily in the sunshine, the rush changed the value of the grandiose while those of Milan, rarely visited of trains and omnibuses and innum- words of this fulsome inscription. erable cabs at its base cannot affect "The hope of the world," the poor its charms, nor even the Italian flag which is put upon its top on the fes-Austrian gilded cage, is now scarcely tivals of the new kingdom; it is "a remembered until a French actress impersonates him in M. Rostand's thing of beauty and a joy for ever." Over against it rises the Baptistery When Father Faber, still a Protest-ant, first visited Pisa he was struck sister of the august Emperor who with the "most unusual sight!" of a was then governing Tuscany, and temple raised to the sole honour of the Sacrament of Regeneration. What seemed so strange in Pisa is common "Commandeur of the Legion of Honstand; on another side is the termin-all over Italy; and this temple, of Baptistery, of Florence is, as Ruskin describes it, the last building raise scarcely remembered, except in an It was allwell with the Nadiotio an electric tramway station is established. The house of God is thus in the midst of the people, and is its bronze doors are open all day it man may find a couple of minutes in the state of the people in the solution of the solutio

Dressed Hogs-Receipts of hogs are in-creasing, and prices are quoted 25c per cwt easier at $7.25 to $7.50 for hight weights, $7 to $7.57 for heavies and $1.75 to $5.25 for sows. Butter-There was not much offering, and prices are steady at 20c to 22c per ID. Eggs-Few farmers were offering lots to-day, and the firm prices of Saturday prevail at 25c to 35c per doze. Poultry-Receipts are still large. Quo-tations are about unchanged at 9c to 110 per 16 for chickens, 5c to 6c for fowl, 5c to 11c for ducks, 7c to 8c for geese and 12c to 14c for turkeys. Hay-About 20 loads were on the market No. I timothy sold at $10 to $12 per ton, and mixed of clover brought $7 to $8. Straw-Four loads sold at $10 to $11 per ton.

Toronto Live Stock.

Receipts of cattle at the Western Man ket to-day were rather light, but there was not much demand for cattle, and trade was inclined to be slow and draggy trade was inclined to be slow and draggy. This condition of affairs extended to the sheep and lamb market, in which there have been more or less heavy-offerings lately. Prices all-round were easier in tone, but, with the exception of export sheep, quotations are unchanged. The run amounted to 62 cars, and included 1.107 cattle, 1.420 sheep and lambs, 600 hogs and by calves.

Export Cattle-The condition of the ang-lish markets still continues discouraging, and at present there is but little demand for exporters. The better class of cattle however, are in some requisition, but of these there are very few or none corring to this market. They are quoted no f.In-ally at $4.40 to $4.60 per cwt. Choice run at $4.25 to $4.40, others at $4.10 to $4.20 and cows at $3.50 to $4. Butchers' Cattle-The warm weather is having a bad effect on the local demand for meat, and there is not much inquiry for butchers' cattle. Picked lots are quot-ed nominally at $4.20 to $4.40 per cwt, good to $3.70, rough to common at $2 to $3 and cows at $1.75 to $3.25. Stockers and Feeders-Trade was a little slow for these cattle. The buik of the demand for feeders is prety well over. Prices are about steady at $2 to $4.25 for feeders and $2 to $3.25 for stockers. Milch Cows-The good cows continue in fair demand. The run was fair, and the fair demand at the good at $30 to $4. Export Cattle-The condition of the ang-range of prices about steady at $30 to $. Calves-Trade was dull. A good number Calves—Trade was dull. A good number were offering, but there was not much de-mand for them. Prices are unchanged at $2 to $10 each and 4c to 5½ c per lb. Sheep and Lambs—The run was heavy and trade was slow. Export ewes are quoted 10c to 15c per cwt lower at $3.25 to $3.40, and bucks are steady at $2.50 to $2.75. Culls are unchanged at $2 to $3. Lambs are quoted steady at $2.50 to $2.75. Culls are unchanged at $2.60 per cwt. Hogs—The run was not heavy, and prices are unchanged at $5.40 per cwt for selects and $5.16 for lights and fats.

East Buffalo, Cattle Markets.

East Buffalo, Nov. 3.—Cattle—Receipts, 1,500 head; slow, barely steady; prine steers, $5.25 to $5.00; shipping, $4.65 to $5.10; others unchanged. Veals—Receipts, 40 head; steady, $5.50 to $5.40; mixed, $5.25 to $5.25; Yorkers, $5.10 to $5.20; pigs, $5 to $5.35; Yorkers, $5.10 to $5.20; pigs, $5 to $5.35; Yorkers, $5.10 to $5.20; pigs, $5 to $5.40; winded and the pigs 5.40: Forkers, 5.40 to 55.20; pigs, 55 to 55.10; roughs, 34.40 to 34.60; stagr, 53.75 to 54.25; dairies and grassers, 55 to, 56.36. Sheep and lambs - Receipts, 4,200 fredd; steady; lambs, 54.25 to 55.35; yearlings and wethers, $3.75 to 54; ewes, $3.25 to $3.40; sheep, mixed, $1.60 to $3.65. of our hopes." "Hence, the secret of the Welt-Schmerz, the dreary, hopeless pessimism that has sunk like a thunder Chicago Live Stock. Chicago, Nov. 3.—Cattle — Receipts. 7,500, including 3.000 westerns: sieady; good to prime steers, $5.25 to $5.75; stock-ers and feeders, $2225 to $4.40; cows, $1.10 to $4; heifers, $21 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; Texas steers, $2 to $4.50; calves, $2 to $5.75; to $4.50. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 20.-000; to-morrow, 26.000; 10c to 20c lower; mixed and butchers', $4.75 to $5.20; rough heavy, $4.50 to $4.80; light, $4.70 to $5.20; rough heavy, $4.50 to $4.80; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $4.80; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $4.80; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $4.50; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $4.50; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $4.50; light, $4.70 to $5.20; cough heavy, $4.50 to $5.50. Sheep-Receipts, 15.000; sheep weak and lambs lower; good to choice mixed, $3 to $3.50; na-tive lambs, $3.50 to $5.55. Leading Where Modern literature is, that these un-happy unbelievers deny their destiny and vocation, and denying it, refuse to pursue it, and sink down into mere denizens of earth. The moment they, yield to the sordid temptation of dis-believing their own immortality, they excommunicate themselves from the universe. They are no longer part of the great, stupendous whole. Life be-comes a wretched span, limited on both sides by the gulf of nothingness, instead of being the prelude to the cloud on the minds of all modern Chicago Live Stock. P. L. CONNELLAN.

79%

universe.

Portrait of the Late Pope Leo XIII.

Magnificent Reproduction of Molthe's Celebrated

An Exceptional Offer to Readers of the Catholic any person who is the sole head of a Register.

The exact measurement of the magnificent picture is 22 x 28 tion of 160 acres, more or less. inches., It has been sold at $1.00.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district The Register Offers It Free to All in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minis-Subscribers who pay Subscription up to ter of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district is which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

THE CANADI

HOMESTEAD RECULATIONS

May even numbered section of Do-minton lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting and 26, which has not been homesteaded or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, os for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter sec-

ENTRY

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

Under the present law homestead duties must be performed in one of the following ways, namely:

(1) By at least six months' realience upon and cultivation of the

(2) If the father (or the mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of the law as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be the satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother, or-

(8) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by himself in the vicinity of his homestead the requirements of the law as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

> APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of the three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspect-

Pope. Address The Catholic Register Publishing Co. I dence upon and cultivation of the term 9 Jordan Street, TORONTO itself away into silence, unless The Blight of Unbelief wind moaning among the tangled grasses and nettles above the de-The concluding pages of Father serted and forgotten grave, can be Sheehan's "Under the Cedars and taken as the echo in nature of the Stars," in the October Dolphin, threnodies that wailed from such despaints in mournful colors the blight olate and despairing lives.

1904

"How different the eternal hope, that follows unbelief. It is true, as the far visioning, the ever exultant he says, that when once one gives paean that rises from the Christian heart; It is always childhood and more of gladness in the morning. If morning, and great peace, and eternthere is no more of "craving after al, invincible faith in the ultimate perfection of all feeble and unstable things. Nature, the sombre and veilsoul becomes callous. "You impris- ed companion of the children of unon the soul when you limit its as- faith, becomes the revealed pirations. It must be in touch with laughing nurse of the children of bethe universe." - It feeds on the insatilief. She, too, is but the beloved servant in our Father's house where able desire it has for its own coun- we are the children. She puts on no

The Offer only holds good to the end of 1903. Send in now and secure the most faithful picture of the late of three years, or-

and for prayer in the intervals between ne journey and another.

In 1887 the magnificent marble farade of the Cathedral was completed, let down, in the presence of the late Cathedral, Baptistery-in the midst orial to her name. And thus Flor-King Humbert and Queen Margaret, of the city with the dust of the ence illuminates the history of the tands, I amongst the number, the im- marbles, and with the noise of trafpression of beauty and adaptability fic penetrating even within the sac-with the rest of the building which red edifices-constitute perhaps the the first sight of the facade made apon all was overwhelming. It was magnificent spectacle in its pure of the place is enhanced when you whiteness of marble slabs and splen- think of the men whose steps have Jid statues, contrasting with the worn these pavements, and whose and bright colors of mosaics, names have come down through the Told the greens and reds of other le adoraments. The general agee with all their light and glory. In the ground, or pavement, outand marble ever please the English! Yesterday I noticed, for the first time, in the mate Grant Allen's little book on Florence this extraordinary piece of 17." That simple phrase brings the placed there, bears the simple in-scription, "Mio bel San Giovanni-my beautiful St. John: Inf. xix., Florence this extraordinary piece of 17." That simple phrase brings the condolence with the factors the second state of the second st Allen. which, in spite of much over-elabor- thoughts that he embodied in his ation and a few gewgaws seems to Divina Commedia, and which constiit occupies.

Undoubtedly Florence will rejoice at the cautious phrases of Grant of the Cathedral the portrait of this Allen, and always remember the hap- wandering minstrel, sad and gloomy, my phrase that the facade is "not standing without the walls of the city wholly unworthy." As to the "Eng-lish utter condemnation" of the work and the heaven he described representone here pays any attention to recklessness. The Floren-with you in many places. On the recklessness, The Floren-have their own ideas the English, and they the English, and they the not regard them as art crit- Dante's stone, for it was here, ac-Some years ago I was present the "Arena" of the Via Nazion-customed to sit and watch the buildthe "Arena" of the via Nazion in Florence when the great actor lyini essayed to play "Hamlet." was not much of a success; one ast be born under a cloudy sky and a cold and loggy climate to thora cold and loggy climate to thor-ishy appreciate such a tragedy as is. Hour by hour the great actor iled on, making little or no way the sympathies of the people. Fin-by he came to a scene which arous-them to loud laughter. When milet, conversing with the grave ger, learns that the latter entered business the day he bimself was be business the day be bimself was orn, "He that is mad, and sent in-be England," said the grave digger. Ay, marry, why was he sent into ingland?" asks Hamlet. "Why, be-

Cures Coughs Croup Bron

ed building that the celebrated bronze Cathedral of Bologna; and her sister doors wrought by Lorenzo Ghilberti, designed by Michael Angelo as wor-whom Canova sculptured as Venus thy to be the Gates of Paradise, are the Conqueror, lies in the vaults of and on that day in May, when the situated, and they face the front door the Borghese Chapel, in Santa Maria great curtain which covered it was of the cathedral opposite. Tower, Maggiore at Rome, without a mem-host of persons from many streets staining the whiteness of their past as you walk along its streets. Separate School Board Provides for Advanced Pupils. The Separate School Board, at its meeting Tuesday night last, decided to fit up a science room at De La Salle Institute for the use of the woice of the Italians, of other cities side the wall of the Baptistery, to boys and girls of the fifth book as well as Florence, has been persist- the right of the Gates of Paradise, a classes. A demonstrator's table and ently laudatory. It does not, how- little slab of white marble, recently apparatus for experiments in chemistry and physics will be installed, at

The board passed a resolution of condolence with the family of the late Michael Walsh, chairman of the information: "I cannot," says Grant mind to that greatest of the Floren-Allen, "unreservedly share in the fre-tines, Dante, who was banished from Building Committee, who has passed uent English utter condemnation of the city of his sires, and went wan-away since the previous meeting of dering about, thinking out the great the board.

The invitation extended to the members of the board by Alex. me not wholly unworthy of the place tute the study of great minds to-day. Fraser, M. A., to attend the patri-tit orcunics?" This little white slab suggests a otic concert at Massey Hall on the whole story. On the left inner wall King's Brithday was accepted with suitable acknowledgments.

> Whatever you may have in your purse, carry hope in your heart and spend it freely.

> > Slattery, Canada Life Building, To-ronto, Solicitors for Peter J. Haffey

To Fit Up Science Room

in the Matler of the Estate of James Joseph Scanion, late of the City of Toronto in the County of York. Hotel Proprietor, Deceased. Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario 1897, Chapter 129, that all creditors and others having claims against the es-tate of the said James Joseph Scan-lon, who died on or about the third day of January, 1903, are required on or before the fifteenth day of No-vember, 1903 to send by post pre-paid or deliver to Messrs. Hearn &

Abode in quiet, temperate, chaste."

and John Culliton, executors of the last will and testament of the said And in the Via de'Cerchi hard by there is another, and on the front of the ancient Church of the Badia andeceased, their names, addresses and descriptions and full particulars of their claims and accounts and the naother still. Thus, in these narrow ture of the securities, if any, held by streets, in the oldest part of the city, where history was made in the themf And further take notice that after days of Dante, you may read mar-ginal notes furnished by the poet to such last-mentioned date the said the ancient City records. A few weeks ago, on my way north, I stay-ed in Florence, which was then in the throes of a Parliamentary electionrepublican against an aristocrat, the former with a mind open to every nnovation, divorce amongst them: the latter conservative, monarchical, the latter conservative, monarchical, dignified. The latter was deleated, and Republicanism gained a seat. But what was epecially noticeable in the deluge of election posters that cover-ed the walls, layer over layer. was the appeal the Republican candidate made to Dante's Divina Commedia!

Leading Wheat Markets.

Closing previous day. To-day. connoted by immortality. Man is a Nov. May. Nov. May. clod, a tenseless atom, an inorganic

New York 87 831/4 ... 83% 821/4 861/2 82 781/ 773/4

British Markets.

A POPULAR HEALTH RESORT.

curtain, and the lights are extinguish-A POPULAR HEALTH RESORT. A Grand Trunk official stated to the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which ble for the said assets or any part they shall then have notice and that thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have such distribution. Dated the seighth day of October, HEARN & SLATTERS.

HEARN & SLATTERT, ed about 100 per cent. Solictors for Executors.

plicities of one who is a handmaider to the great Lord of all things. hence, we are not frightened by her power, nor terrified by her magic, nor awed by her sublimity. All her motions and signs we refer to a Cause and an End. We appreciate their beauty and holiness; but rest not there. All things in her and about her round to perfection-that final perfection which is God!" "(Rev.) P. A. SHEEHAN."

Late Arthur Murphy of Quebec

Mr. Arthur Murphy, ex-M.P.P., of Quebec west, who death announced at the age of 74, was a conspicious figure in the ancient capital over 30 the Interior, Ottawa; the Commisvast eternity of existence that is years ago. He was extensively in- sioner of Immigration, Winnipeg. terested and successful in the export lumber trade and lived in princly Lands Agents in Maniteba or the connoted by immortality. Man is a substance, galvanized for a moment into an organism. He is but a selfstyle. Many distinguished foreigners, including Mgr. Conroy, the first pap-al delegate sent to Canada from conscious yet insignificant part of the Deputy-Minister of the Interior. N.B.-In addition to Free Crant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from Railroad and other Corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

Fort Frances.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at the Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion lands in the railway belt in British Columbia. may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of Northwest Territories.

JAMES A. SMART, Rome, in 1870, were Mr. Murphy's guests while in Quebec.

sorts at St. Catharines has increas-ed about 100 per cent. over last year. If you like, schoing along the chords of hugan misery, and se their veins; the cry of victory is not on their lips. Life is all a hideous drama, until death tears down the chemistry of Nature, with no rela-tions, least of all eternal correspond-

"I cannot help thinking that mad

77% ences, with the vast spirits of the

